Christ Child Society Plans Gala Carnival

Christ Child Society's annual bazaar is entitled "Carnival Americana" and will take place Wednesday, Oct. 30 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom at Cobo Hall.

There will be Christmas items for sale, including toys, hats, knitted articles, jewelry, pantry and baked goods and a handicraft booth. A coffee corner will be provided and luncheon will be served from noon until 1:30.

A fashion show by Jacobson's will highlight the afternoon, models from Birmingham including Mrs. Frank Audette, Mrs. William J. Wink, Jr., Mrs. Robert Jones, Mrs. Francis M. Anderson and Mrs. David Smith.

YOUNGSTERS from the area who will model are Colleen McDonald, Mary Beth Rich, Jody Cronin, Cynthia Reason and Chip Winston.

Mrs. Lee Embry is Birmingham chairman, assisted by Mrs. William Kenyon, Mrs. Walter Cronin, Mrs. Robert Wink, Mrs. Robert Mahler, Mrs. Robert Ladio, Mrs. Robert E. Reason and Mrs. Robert Moons.

Proceeds for this affair go to maintain Christ Child Home for unfortunate children of the community and to the Lahser Road Christ Child School for educable mentally retarded children.

Pair Takes Wedding Trip To Smokies

At a ceremony solemnized Oct. 13 in the First Baptist Church of Birmingham, Judith Annette Akerley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Akerley of Pierce St., became the bride of Wilbert E. Kortryx, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johann A. Kortryx of Royal Oak. Immediately following a reception in the church parlors, the couple left on a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains.

The bride wore a gown of white velvet designed with a high, round neckline, elbow-length sleeves and a brief little jacket trimmed with velvet cut-work. Her detachable train was fashioned of bridal satin, and her veil of imported illusion was secured to a Dior bow of velvet. She carried a small white Bible covered with stephanotis and ivy.

MRS. KENNETH B. Mallender of Warren, a cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Bonni's McKim and Katherine Doyle of Birmingham; Mrs. Roger Ben-scotter of Clarkston and Mrs. Charles Carolin of Royal Oak.

They all wore forest green velvet sheaths — sleeveless — and matching Dior bows in their hair. They carried tropical foliage in colors of gold, russet and green with wheat sprays.

Jerry Patenaude of Royal Oak was best man and ushers included Daniel Akerley, brother of the bride; Joseph Bamsey and Larry Patch of Royal Oak and Dennis Racine of Flint.

Following their honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Royal Oak.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Avery of Vancouver, Wash.

"Whaddaya mean, you can't fit me?"

We admit that a centaur-customer would throw us for a time. Short of four-legged customers though, our chances of fitting anyone are quite good. We carry shorts, regulars and longs. From 79.50 to 150.00 with all the needed furnishings and sportswear, too. No need to accept excuses anywhere else, is there?
