Chantilly Lace Highlights Bridal Robes

Betty Lee Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Butler of Oakhill Drive, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows Saturday to Richard Davis Newman, son of Bestrand Newman of Detroit and Mrs. Dorothy Dickson of Windsor, Ont. The 7 o'clock ceremony was solemnized in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, after which a reception was given at Northwood Inn.

MRS. NEWMAN

Michael Alagna was best man, and seating the guests were Leon Nicholson, William Scott and Roger Garon.

Following a wedding trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the couple will make their home in Detroit.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of bridal taffeta fashioned with a scoop neckline of Chantilly lace embroidered in tiny pearls and iridescent sequins, long pointed sleeves and a chapel train. Her bouffant veil fell from flower petals re-embroidered in lace and pearls, and she carried Eucharist lilies and stephanotis.

MRS. LEON NICHOLSON of Royal Oak was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Jackie Alagna of Royal Oak; Edith Butler of Birmingham and Gail ham-Bloomfield area. Place a Went wore gowns of sapphire blue taffeta and carried pink sweetheart roses and white carnations.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH Begins as Housewarming, Ends as Surprise Party

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

A party for 20 can present a problem, especially if it is to be a surprise party and a housewarming party too. But, a successful surprise took place at the new home of Fran and Vince Fran and Vince with their three children, Mike, Amy and Marcie had just moved into their new home at 3731 Thornbrier Way, in Still Meadow early last week. They were preparing to spend the evening with old friends, the John Moores, when their son, Mike came running in to announce that there were many adults walking up to the front door.

The happy Frans opened their new door to find many friends laden with refreshments and silly gifts to "warm" a brand new home.

MRS. JOHN NICOLLS of Blair House Court opened her home on Oct. 7 for a benefit card party. It was also a meeting of the Williamsburg Garden Club. Thirty-six ladies had luncheon and then played cards to raise money for civic improvement of the Williamsburg subdivision.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Hellier and their four children have returned to their new Wing Lake Road home following a two-week vacation visiting relatives in Minneapolis, Minn. The Helliers are former residents of Grand Rapids and moved to the Dells of Bloomfield about four months ago. Their children are Glade, 10; twins Mary Kim and Bruce, 6; and Robert Jr., 2.

Mr. Hellier is assistant to the regional sales manager of International Business Machines. The whole family enjoys football and Mr. and Mrs. Hellier also like to ski and play bridge.

AT A RECENT committee meeting of Boy Scout Troop 1022, held at the home of Robert Glenn on Clarendon Road, plans were formulated for the Court of Honor to be held at Conant School on Oct. 29.

The troop has been active throughout the past months, with Scouts and their dads participating in over-night canoe trips on both the Manistee and Pine rivers. The next over-night is scheduled for Nov. 9 and 10 at the Waterloo Recreation area.
