The goblins, witches, black cats and other costumed creatures in the Eastover School area will go out begging on Halloween night with a dual purpose in mind.

In one hand they will tote their trick or treat bags and in the other an orange and black

Residents are urged to divide their Halloween contribution between candies and pennies so these costumed characters of good will shall not be disappointed in their efforts to share their Halloween fun with the needy children of the world.

PINE HILL subdivision residents are working on their 10th annual Halloween parade and party for the children, to be held on Saturday afternoon and evening. This year Mrs. Robert Rooney of Pine Hill Drive, chairman of the event, has planned to have the crowd of more than 200 served from a chuck wagon on the pump house grounds.

The old meeting place, Pine Hill corner of Batterman Hill, will be the starting point of the costumed parade with Jo Elliott and her band leading the way through the subdivision to Haunted Hollow where rides, favors and food, will await all ages.

The balance of the evening will be taken up with door to door begging by the small fry.

TOWN ACRES subdivision will stage a Sunday afternoon Halloween costumed parade through their area beginning at three o'clock. A seven-foot dinosaur float erected and led by a clown, known to most as the Smith, will add additional atmosphere to the parade.

At the end of their trek, elder, and the judging of costumes will give the outing the finishing touch. Planning the event are Mr. and Mrs. Al Foote of Townhill Drive, program chairmen.

CHARING CROSS Estates has planned its annual Halloween parade and party for the subdivision youngsters. The time-dusk on Halloween night.

The parade will begin at the triangle of Haddington and gain momentum until it reaches Spook Hollow where refreshments will be served and the judging of costumes will take place. House to house begging will follow.

A HALLOWEEN pot luck supper party will be hosted by the Robert Brandons of Pine Hill Drive on Friday evening.

The group has been meeting occasionally since last spring and includes: the Robert Montgomerys of Greentree Road, the Thomas Clarks of North Adams Road, the Roger Blackwoods of Charnwood Drive, the Summer Gosses of Birmingham and the Richard Quantances of Rochester.

Charing Cross Estates residents gathered at Sylvan Glen Country Club for their annual fall subdivision "meet and greet your neighbor" luncheon Thursday. Fifty were planning to attend the buffet and bridge that was planned by area residents. Mrs. James Mimura of Haddington Road and Mrs. Raymond Rozak of Burnley Drive.

MRS. EUGENE Quackenbush, Mrs. Robert Nelson and Mrs. James Conway of Burnley Drive joined Mrs. Robert Wallace of Bloomfield Village on Wednesday to hear guest speaker Martin Agronski, star correspondent of the Today Show, at Detroit Town Hall.

After the lecture the group attended the celebrity luncheon at the new Al Green Restaurant in the Fisher Building.

The Wallaces of Tullamore Drive moved into their new home in Bloomfield Village the first of September.

MR. AND MRS. Donald Dennis moved into their new home at 27 Evandale Road after their seven-month trip around the world.

Weekly accounts of their trip were published in The Eccentric during their travels through Hawaii, Japan, Hong Kong, Singapore, Cambodia, South Viet Nam, Burma, Borneo, India, Nepal, Pakistan, Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon, Turkey, Greece, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, France, Spain, Belgium, Holland, Denmark and England.

They returned home in August and back to work. Dennis is an art teacher at Bloomfield Hills High School and Mrs. Dennis is a visiting teacher in the Bloomfield Hills School District. They formerly lived on Wing Lake Road, Birmingham.

THE J. THOMAS Maidens moved from their N. Evandale Road home, now the Dennis residence, to a home in Chicago where Maiden was transferred. His new title is director of marketing with Scully Jones.

A group of area residents interested in sewing, mending and knitting, decided recently to form a group to meet the second Tuesday of every month.

Their November gathering, which includes luncheon, will be at the Pine Hill Drive home of Mrs. Robert Brandons. The group is growing and at present has 12 members. In the North Adams area are, Mrs. John Yoder, Mrs. Frank Carlson, Mrs. Edwin Cox, Mrs. Howard Spokes.

After reading the "Have You Met" items on newcomers in The Eccentric, Mrs. Clarence Frahm of Westchester Road decided to write about her neighbor.

Have you met Edna Jacobson? She's my neighbor and my friend. Close by to help, ask one who knows.

Color her pink, just like a rose, that is,

California was her home. Then to Bloomfield she did roam. Across the road to live near me, I'm as lucky as can be.

Color her blue, true blue, thank you.

Sparklin' eyes and a smile so sweet, Helping hand, fast travelin' feet, That's my neighbor, she's just right. Please color her white, shining white like the angel she is.

So outstanding are the Jacobsons one and all, why be small. Let's color them all, a rainbow, that is.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Jay D. Silsby of Gasport, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn Ann, to Philip R. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Yorkville Road, Birmingham. The bride-elect is a senior at Cornell University, where she is majoring in home economics. Her fiancé is a graduate of Birmingham High School and a June graduate of Cornell. A summer wedding is planned.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.
