Real Estate Men Give to Olympic Bid

Representatives of the Birmingham Real Estate Board, Rudolph Ranke of Weir, Manuel & Snyder, Inc., and Jerry Evens of Chamberlain Real Estate Co. attended an Olympic luncheon Oct. 4 in Detroit.

The event was guested by Gov. George Romney, Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh and heads of the Detroit Olympic Fund Committee.

A check for $11,647.25 was presented to Richard Cross, chairman of American Motors Corp. and head of the fund drive, as the total contribution of various real estate boards, mortgage bankers and builders.

EVENS STATES that the Birmingham board's share was $461,500, a substantial proportion of the total, and was sparked by broker contributions from Chamberlain Real Estate Co., Weir, Manuel & Snyder, Max Brock, Inc., A. L. Doenges Co., Charles J. Van Horn Co. and Fred Pierce, Inc.

Other brokers' contributions were given through their membership in the Detroit board. The sales staff of Max Brock, Inc., and Benjamin & Bishop led the offices in individual support of Detroit's Olympic bid.

Hey Buddy, Can You Spare a Dime?

Those hoboes seen wandering through Birmingham's downtown business area Saturday weren't really hoboes at all but models announcing a warehouse sale sponsored by three Pierce St. merchants. The Prep Shop, Games Imported and the Varsity Shop turned the warehouse they share into a salesroom for the event. The two non-hoboes are Bill Wizer, Prep Shop, and Bob Martin, Games Imported.
