Antiquers!

MRS. ROBERT BURTON (LEFT) AND MRS. TOM RESTRIK

MRS. HARRY ALTICK (LEFT) AND MRS. JOHN COLE, JR.

The sixteenth annual Antiques Market sponsored by the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries will draw dozens of Birmingham-Bloomfield women to the Goodwill Plant in Detroit Nov. 10 through Nov. 13. Fifty dealers in American and imported antiques will exhibit and sell. There will be a Country Store, a dining room for lunches and dinners and an ice cream parlor and snack bar. Mrs. Altick is in charge of serving luncheon to the dealers while the show is being set up; Mrs. Cole is chairman of arrangements; Mrs. Burton is hostess for the Copper Kettle (dining room) and Mrs. Restrirk, as a probationary, is learning all about how this annual event is run.

Founders' Day Is Observed By Delta Zeta

Delta Zeta alumnae of Oakland County observed Founder's Day Oct. 24 with more than the usual excitement, for this event was held at the Pine Lake Road home of Mrs. Russell T. Costello who has been Delta Zeta's past national president and is currently the national Pan-Hellenic Conference delegate.

Mrs. Donald Burch, 5671 Westwood Ct., and Mrs. F. L. Lutze, 15520 Amhurst, were co-chairmen for potluck buffet supper preceding the program.

PROGRAM CHAIRMAN, Mrs. George Sether, 2633 Dubshire, is the collegiate province director for East Michigan, and invited all collegiates in the area to participate in the ceremonies.

Mrs. Herbert W. Schmetzky, 280 Westchester Way, president of the Oakland County alumnae group, initiated the establishment of a fund which will assist all Michigan collegiate chapters.

Past presidents, Mrs. Forbes Hascall, 946 Pine Hill Road, and Mrs. Winfield Hinman, 27310 Wellington Drive, spoke on the "Work of the Alumnae for the Sorority Future". Mrs. Hinman is alumnae province director for Indiana and West Michigan.

Restaurant Turned Over To Juniors

Members of the Junior Guild of Providence Hospital gave their annual party for members Oct. 18 at the Sign of the Beefeater in Royal Oak.

The early American restaurant, owned by guild member Mrs. John F. Joliat of Lakeside Road, Birmingham, was turned over to the group after closing hours.

It sets its own atmosphere for a party, with its paneled walls, pot-bellied stoves, soft lantern and checkered tablecloths.

DANCING AND SINGING with the Charlie Auld Trio was followed by a buffet dinner at midnight.

Among those from this area attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Burkhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Carney, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. William Gibbs, Dr. and Mrs. William Flaherty, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mayor, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffman and Dr. and Mrs. John Tracey.

Glencoe Garden Club

The Glencoe Garden Club met Oct. 17 in the home of Mrs. John Kluck of Blandford Ct.

After the business meeting, Mrs. William Berridge conducted the first of two Christmas gift workshops. Small items of felt were made by the members.

Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Ray Rice and Mrs. Robert Wood.
