and Mary Jo, who attend the Convent of the Sacred Heart in Bloomfield Hills, also displayed special medals for their outstanding work in the junior auxiliary. Cynthia, who has been a member for six months, attends Marion High School in Birmingham.

Mrs. VanCronkrite explained that the girls work during vacations, after school and on Saturdays. Although they range in age from 15 to 17, they are extremely conscientious and mature, wholly capable of assisting in the hospital gift shop, running a gift cart and working in pediatrics and on other jobs as requested.

Mrs. VanCronkrite, herself a volunteer despite three young children under the age of seven, says her work with the teenagers is the most rewarding she has done.

"It's not unusual," she notes, "to read about teenagers getting into all sorts of trouble every day. Consequently, when you find a dedicated group of girls who are willing to give up their free hours to help others, it's worth every minute of time I spend training and assisting them."

To Attend Debut

As the debut of Carol Rosenberger approaches, residents of Bloomfield and Birmingham are making plans to attend either on Friday, Nov. 1, or on Sunday, Nov. 3. Institute of Arts in Detroit is the locale.

Mr. and Mrs. Russ Robins and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Douglass will make up a foursome for dinner at the DAC before Friday evening's performance.

Also dining at the DAC will be Mr. and Mrs. Vince Van Fleet and the Read Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Raich with their guests Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Newberg have asked Mrs. Charles William Beck (Mrs. Newberg's mother), Mr. and Mrs. John Longley, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Coffin and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Guething, Jr., to be their guests at the DAC, preceding the debut on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whiting Jr. and Mrs. Whiting's parents, the John Gordons, will join forces for dinner before Friday evening's performance. Mrs. Gordon just returned from Europe this week, having delayed her departure for home a few days longer than Mr. Gordon, who returned the previous week.

Add First Nighters

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Clifford Goad, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hackett, the Stanford Landells, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crane, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Skinner, Mrs. John Abbott, Mrs. Edward Laska, Mrs. Helen Maday McAlister, Mrs. James L. Gilson, Mrs. Janet Wherry Martin and Mrs. Teruko Yamasaki all will be among first nighters.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCaul will be guests of Dr. and Mrs. Howard Green at dinner and opening night.

House Guests Included

The guest list for Sunday includes out-of-town houseguests of the Kenneth Manuels of Karen Lane. They are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hamilton, Jr., of Ft. Wayne, Ind. Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Manuel were college roommates at the University of Michigan. The Hamiltons will be guests for the weekend and join the Manuels for the Michigan game on Saturday, and then dinner at Orchard Lake Country Club and the Sunday afternoon performance.

Others attending on Sunday will be Mrs. Edson Pool with guest, Mrs. C. C. Betzner, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Richardson, Jr. and Diane and Donna Richardson.

Area Women Push Telephone Bridge

Members of the Women's Auxiliary to the Michigan Industrial Medical Association held their annual telephone bridge on Tuesday Oct. 29. Proceeds from the event will be used to purchase books pertaining to industrial medicine for the University of Michigan and Wayne State University.

Among those entertaining locally were Mrs. William Jend of Wing Lake Road; Mrs. Earl Weston of Forman Drive, assisted by Mrs. Earl Lutz of Birmingham; Mrs. John H. Ganschow of Huntington Woods; and Mrs. Douglas Wood of Birmingham.

Minnesota

Woman's Club Will Meet

The regular meeting of the University of Minnesota Women's Club will be held on Friday at the home of Mrs. Harold Melin, 3072 Patch Drive, Birmingham. Assisting the hostess will be Mesdames M. J. Patterson, J. R. Strang, Carl Christenson, and Noel Haberkost, all of Birmingham. A salad luncheon is planned.

The program "How Modern Medicine Came To Old China" will be presented by Priscilla Jackson. Mrs. Jackson is the daughter and granddaughter of two generations of missionary surgeons, so is well qualified to speak on this subject. She is Director of Conferences and teaches at Oakland University, is a writer of note and is active in, and has held many offices in civic organizations, both in Detroit and Oakland County.

The officers for the new year are Mrs. Howard Baer, president; Mrs. Lucas Melin, vice president; Mrs. Nicholas Kenjaski, second vice president; Mrs. G. E. Graves, secretary; Mrs. Harold Melin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Gilbert Crandall, treasurer, and Mrs. A. L. Malmstrom, assistant treasurer.

Guests

Chorus girl for a night was Mrs. Richard Guillot of Eastmoor Road. She was one of the "Lakettes" in Pine Lake Country Club's annual talent show Saturday night.

LATHRUP - CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Foreign Students to Discuss Homelands

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Recent visitors of the French Riviera have been Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Crafley and their sons, Richard and Keith of Roseland Boulevard, Lathrup Village.

The Crafley family traveled by jet touring Monte Carlo, Nice, and Cannes. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. D. Powell Mahin of Grosse Pointe.

THE LATHRUP Women's Club will convene at 1 p.m. on Nov. 4 in the Fellowship Hall of the Community Congregational Church.

Students from the foreign student office of Wayne State University will present a panel discussion. Discussing their homelands will be Andre Diatsulwa, a national of the Republic of the Congo and Zainal Arsjad, a national of Indonesia.

Both young men come from countries daily featured in the news. They will share their own personal experiences and knowledge and culture of their native lands.

Diatsulwa is a teacher majoring in economics at Wayne State. Arsjad is a student in the graduate division of business administration at Wayne State.

The panel discussion will be moderated by Mrs. Robert Bolt-wood, who is Wayne State foreign student advisor at Wayne State University. Mrs. Boltwood is from the foreign student office which serves students from 70 countries and was established to help students from abroad to make the adjustment to the university and the Detroit community.

Mrs. George Snaddon will be hostess for the afternoon affair. She will be assisted by Mrs. Kai Hanson and Mrs. Halger Alper. Pouring at the tea table will be Mrs. Carl Bush and Mrs. Ray Matten.

THE CRANBROOK Village north branch, WNFCA, will meet at 12:30, Nov. 4 at the home of

October 31, 1968 THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC 3-CC

Mrs. Paul Howe on Northgate. Mrs. Howe will be assisted by cohostesses Mrs. Hugh Clark and Mrs. Michael Orsargous.

The topic for the day will be presented by Mrs. Jean Goldner of Golden Nursery. She will speak on holiday ideas and instruct the group on gift wrapping.

THE ANDREW Carnegie home in Lathrup Village is a "happy place these days, with Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie 'bursting their buttons' as well they might. They recently received word that their daughter, Nancy will be one among only five girls in the cast of "What Makes Sammy Run?"

Nancy, a Southfield High School graduate, studied for five years at the Royal Ballet in London. She will open in Philadelphia on Dec. 26 for a five-week run and then on Broadway Feb. 4.

ANOTHER SET of proud parents are the Stanley Ostoffs who live on Northgate in Cranbrook Village. Their daughter, Denise, 13, a student at Birchshire School, was chosen to be one of the models for Jackson's last Saturday at their Sky Teen Show.

YOUNG JOHN Gregory, born Sept. 27 and weighing five pounds and 14 ounces, makes three boys for the John Spensers of Rock Creek Drive. He joins Robert, 2½, and Jeffrey, 1 year.
