

Westchester PTA Sets Fashion Show

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0056

Big event of the year for the Westchester Elementary School PTA is the fashion show to be held on Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the school gym.

The title "Fashions for Books" was selected for the affair because the proceeds will be used to obtain more reading material for the school library. Chairman Mrs. C. Farnworth of Whiteleigh Road and her co-chairman Mrs. William Mollison of Westbourne Drive will have presenting the show, Chudik's of Birmingham while Pam's of Bloomfield will show children's clothing.

Hair fashions will be done by Gerald Davis Hair Stylists. Mr. Edward Chudik will narrate the show. Refreshment chairman is Mrs. John Tuckfield. There will also be door prizes awarded.

Modeling in the show will be Mrs. W. P. Richards, Mrs. Dale Grovert, Mrs. John Tuckfield, Mrs. Harold Reeck, Mrs. Gerald Tobias and Mrs. Bruce Newton. Teen fashions will be modeled by Bonnie Hunt and Lucy Anders.

Modeling the children's fashions will be Laura Halbeck, Lora Torres, Kathy Mease, Marcy Mollison, Karen Roth. Others will be Debby Perry and Michele Duke. Young boys' fashions will be worn by Mark Mollison, Stuart Grovert, Jay McCall and Tom Knapp.

MR. AND MRS. WILLARD Rex of Halcyon Road spent the weekend of Oct. 25 attending the homecoming festivities of the University of Toledo of which Rex is an alumn.

They renewed many friendships over hot dogs and coffee which is a "must" at a homecoming. While in Toledo Mrs. Rex also found time to have a bridge session with a foursome of which she had been a member for many years.

THE GREAT outdoors and farm life has a special appeal to the Leonard Quart family of S. Glenarry Road. The Quarts spend many weeks and at their property which is near Glennie, Mich., where they raise live deer, have a herd of horses, a pet duck and other animals.

There is also a private lake on the property stocked with fish for both summer and ice fishing season. With the hunting season open at the present time, Quart and his son George tried Mrs. Larry Quart, although only brought home a wood chuck.

Over the week end the Quarts entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Walker Jr. and their family and also Mr. and Mrs. William Dillen and their children. They are all bow and arrow hunters.

Mrs. George Walker is only three and Ellen who is a student at the new Berkshire school, enjoy going north and all the things the farm holds for their pleasure.

Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leipold marked their golden wedding anniversary Oct. 25 and on the following day were honored at a reception given in their home on Kirkshire Road, Beverly Hills. Hosts at the party were their sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Leipold of Birmingham; the Paul Leipolds, who came from their home in Babylon, L. I., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leipold of Bloomfield Hills.

Husbands were invited to an unusual meeting of the West Beverly Hills Garden Club last Thursday evening. Mr. Harold Reasoner, assisted by Mrs. Reasoner who is a Garden Club member, were the guest speakers at the Mayfair Lane home of Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Oehler.

Ordinarily it is only the ladies who attend afternoon meetings, but this program was so special that arrangements were made to include the men.

Last winter Mr. and Mrs. Reasoner spent 11 weeks in India, covering much of the same territory as did Mrs. John F. Kennedy. The Reasoners visited New and Old Delhi; Bombay; Calcutta; the Taj Mahal; Fatepur Shikri which is the elaborate palace and walled city built by the same family that built the Taj Mahal; rode elephants to the "Pink City" of Jaipur; and on the way home stopped at Bangkok, Tokyo, Hong Kong, and Honolulu.

The colored slides they brought back as well as their first hand experiences made the evening a memorable one for those who attended. Assisting Mrs. Oehler as co-hostesses were Mrs. Clarence McGee, Mrs. James McCroff and Mrs. Robert Lakatos.

Adventurers Plan Meeting In Royal Oak

A luncheon at 12:15 on Tuesday will bring the members of the Adventurers Club together at the home of Mrs. Max Williams on Maxwell Street on Royal Oak.

Following luncheon the ladies from the Bloomfield, Birmingham and Beverly Hills area will hear a program presented in three parts.

Mrs. J. C. Saffer will speak on prominent women of the world, Mrs. Douglas Symes will discuss the early history of the comics and Mrs. B. A. Davidson will discuss the sale of wheat to Russia, using the article that appeared recently in The Eccentric as her guide.

Sigma Kappa

The 40th anniversary of the Detroit Alumna Chapter of Sigma Kappa sorority will be celebrated at 8 p.m. Nov. 8 at Northland Inn.

Mrs. John P. Thomson of Middlebelt Road, Orchard Lake, is in charge of the founders' day plans.

'Round World In 18 Days

Mrs. Harry D. Wise and her son, Dr. Robert Paul Wise, of Keller Lane, Bloomfield Hills, are recently back from a flying (literally) trip to Europe, during which they saw more in 18 days than most people do in a month!

They flew directly to Paris, then on to Zurich, Switzerland, and from there to Innsbruck, Austria. They toured that country and Germany in a rented car, then flew to Rome, back to Paris and, finally, to London, where

Republican Women

The Bloomfield Republican Women's Club will hold its next regular meeting Nov. 4 in the home of Mrs. Donald Haggis, 8845 Woodlake Drive. The coffee hour is at 9:30 a.m., after which the film, "The Welfare of State," narrated by Ronald Reagan, will be shown promptly at 10 a.m.

WNFGA Meets

The monthly meeting of the Westchester Branch, WNFGA, will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Graves, 2808 Windemere, Birmingham, at 8 p.m. next Thursday.

A demonstration on making Christmas decorations will be given by Mrs. Graves.

Your Society Correspondents, featured throughout this section, send news about you.

They embarked for home. Mrs. Wise reports that the new London Hilton, where they headquartered, is as delightful as the ads picture.

THE PRIZE-WINNING float at the Groves High School homecoming game last Friday evening was three weeks in the making in the backyard of Dr. and Mrs. Russell Seeburger of Bellville Trail.

Construction of the float, which featured the homecoming queen's crown and the Groves falcon, was supervised by gym teacher Miss Frances Pulley. Among the sponsoring seniors who worked together were Nancy Howard, Dale Crawford, Dean Buchanan, Mike Ansteth and Russ Seeburger.

MR. AND MRS. DON Borgeson of Riverside Drive are still catching their breath after returning from a whirlwind trip to the West Coast. As this was Mrs. Borgeson's first visit, Don made certain that she saw as much as could be seen in two weeks time.

After taking a train to Portland, Ore., they flew to San Francisco, drove to Los Angeles by way of Carmel and Monterey, taking in Williams Randolph Hearst's San Simeon, before flying to the Desert Inn at Las Vegas and then on home.

The Borgesons dined on Chinese, Japanese, Italian, Kosher, and American food, and encountered beautiful weather wherever they went.
