Eastover Dinner Dance Follows Halloween Theme

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

The residents of Eastover Estates subdivision gathered at Devon Gables for their fifth annual dinner dance on Saturday evening. The party that began at seven for cocktails had a Halloween theme.

The restaurant's west section was decorated in orange and black streamers and large pumpkins. Tiny carved pumpkins, attired in top hats and ties, centered the tables.

Music was supplied by Artie Field's orchestra during the buffet dinner and the evening that followed. Planning the popular event and pinning colorful name tags on the 40 couples attending were Mr. and Mrs. James Beaver of Heston Road. The party committee included: Mrs. C. Philip Bartlett, Mrs. Walter Ohm, Mrs. Lyle Oviatt, Mrs. Charles Barbey, Mrs. Donald Hyde, Mrs. Frank Moutte, Mrs. Roy Belknap and Mrs. W. Richard Smith, whose talent went into the art work.

THE CHARLES Thompsons of Masfield Drive entertained at a Halloween costume party on Saturday evening. The host, a dressed as an alluring woman while Mrs. Thompson's costume was in the hobo fashion.

Among the 10 couples arriving were shiks, a hunter and his tiger, bums, flapper girls, Cleopatra and Caesar, comic characters and beatniks.

Corn stalks and pumpkins decorated the entrance, family room and rear porch. Halloween games were played and trophies awarded for the most original costumes.

A SERIES of three Halloween parties are taking place at the Burnley Drive home of the Les Walters, newcomers to the area. On Thursday evening daughters Connie and Charlotte entertained 22 costumed children from Detroit, Waterford and Birmingham, at a Halloween winner roast supper party followed by games.

In preparation for the senior Walters party, invitations were sent out to friends inviting them to a costumed "story-book-character" party on Saturday evening. The Walters greeted their 32 guests in Raggedy Ann and Andy costumes. They carried out the Halloween theme in their decorations for the party.

Last but not least is three-year-old Carmen Walters' party a day this week. She will have her own Halloween party with a group of small fry from her dancing school class. The Walters family moved here recently from Waterford. Walters is general superintendent with Oakview Construction Co.

A "BEATNIK THEME" will be carried out by the Joseph Neals of Burnley Drive at their fourth annual Halloween party on Saturday evening. Bright light bulbs, floor cushions, modern poetry and music will be part of the "way out theme." The Neals and their 30 beatnik guests will snack at midnight.

Foxcroft WNFGA to Mark 10th Anniversary Monday

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

November 20 marks the 10th anniversary of the Foxcroft branch, WNFGA. Members have Nov. 4 circled on their calendar as the day to save for the celebration. The meeting will convene at 12:30 in the Franklin Community Church. The charter members will be the honored guests. Most of them are still residents of Foxcroft. They include: Margaret A. Ames Bennett, John S. Black Jr., C. P. Buschagen, Richard Carter, Frederick E. Fleming, Francis O. Gadd, Harold G. Haines, James A. Hall, Robert J. Hickson and Joseph Howell.

OTHERS WHO are hoping to attend are Mrs. Ellworth E. Kramer, Mrs. E. W. Kleinschmidt, Mrs. Earl Lutz, Mrs. George Mack, Mrs. Mark H. Martin, Mrs. George L. McCane, Mrs. Lawrence Mullennix, Mrs. T. A. Nickelson, Mrs. H. F. Stoll, Mrs. H. E. Twitemeyer, Mrs. C. J. Van Halteren, Mrs. G. S. Whittaker and Mrs. J. Warner Wolfson. Special speaker, Mrs. Alice Wessels Burlingame, will tell of successful horticultural therapy programs. She will also tell of her trip to Europe this summer to lecture on horticultural therapy, at the invitation of President Kennedy's People to People Program Committee.

Social chairman of the branch, Mrs. Michael Johnson Jr., will be hostess of the day. She will be assisted by Mrs. George S. Monbooth, Mrs. William Jackson and Mrs. John H. Hohnke.

MRS. ERIC Hoagberg and Mrs. William Berridge gave a farewell luncheon honoring their neighbor, Mrs. Wim Retra last Tuesday afternoon.

The Retra family, including son Hans, formerly lived on Blanford Road when they came to this country from Amsterdam, Holland. They have been transferred to Copenhagen, Denmark where Mr. Retra has been since August.

Mrs. Retra and Hans have been staying in the area until Hans' 18th birthday so that Hans can obtain his citizenship papers. Upon completion of this they will join Mr. Retra in Denmark.

MR. AND MRS. Larry Byer returned to their Kelly Road home recently following a week's visit with former Westwood Manor residents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Smith. The Smith family is now residing in Smoke Rise, N. J.

The Smiths had just returned home from a three-week combined business and pleasure trip to Italy. So between a trip to New York, and various dinner parties the foursome enjoyed reuniting friendships and seeing slides and hearing about the Smiths' trip abroad.

THE BLOOMFIELD Heights branch, WNFGA, held its October meeting at the Pine Tree Trail home of Mrs. Colton Hutchins. Cohostesses were also Pine Tree Trail residents, Mrs. Robert A. Winter and Mrs. Edward P. Barrett.

THE ANTHONY ZARS of Rock Spring Road entertained relatives of Mrs. Zar, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Ferris McMahon and children, Steven and Kate, of Monterey, Santa Barbara, Calif. last week.

On Wednesday Mrs. Zar entertained at a "morning coffee" introducing her new neighbor, Mrs. William House, Jr. of Rock Spring Road, to area residents. The Houses moved here recently from Bay City, Mich.

ON MONDAY, members of the Chapel Hill Estates Garden Club will meet at the Ashover Road home of Mrs. Karl Bradley for its November meeting. It will be a meeting of welcoming newcomers to the club and to hear their guest speaker, Mrs. William Lawrie, talk on "Our Natural Beauty in Michigan."

OSAGE GARDEN Club will hold its November meeting at the Dowling Road home of Mrs. Fred Stofansky on Monday afternoon. "Floral Design" will be the topic discussed by Mrs. Bert Wicking, the club's guest speaker.

The garden club members are completing their series of workshops this week in preparation for their Osage Scholarship Tea and gift sale on Nov. 11 at the Birmingham YMCA.

THE ROBERT CROOKERS of Oakhill Drive are making plans for a week in New York in November. They expect to fly, giving them more time to visit Crookers brother and family, the Edward Crookers, and to visit their former neighbors and friends.

The program consisted of participation of the members as a result of their summer project. All members were asked to take 35-mm slides of their various gardens to be shown when the club met in the fall.

NOVEMBER 4, Wing Lake School's PTO program will be presented by Mrs. Marge Thomas and Mrs. Marguerite Bean. They will discuss the new math system.

Following the discussion and a film the parents will be excused to attend classes in grades 1, 3, 4 and 5. The teachers will teach the parents the new system.
