

Bridal Pair Takes Trip to Bermuda

Shirley Irene Bunnell was married to Robert E. Hojna Saturday, October 26, at St. Mary Magdalen Church, Hazel Park. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bunnell of West Fourteen Mile Road, Birmingham. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hojna of Madison Heights.

She carried a cascade of Eucharist Lilies.

MRS. DOUGLAS HAMBURG, the former Theresa MacLaughlin, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles O'Neill, the former Mary Howe, and Gloria Hojna, the groom's sister. They wore floor-length gowns with Empire waistlines and A-line skirts. The matron of honor's dress was brine green and the bridesmaids were of honey gold.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bunnell chose a teal blue satin costume and pinner gardenias on her purse. Mrs. Hojna wore a beige satin gown and her flowers were cymbidium orchids. Both the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Rose Neefe of Montana, and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Irene Cornia of Illinois, attended the wedding.

Forest Lake

Members of Forest Lake Country Club attended a dinner and fashion show by Jacobson's Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Eino Nurme headed the committee. Clothes modeled were for both men and women.

After a Bermuda honeymoon the couple will live in Royal Oak.

Alpha Delta Pi

North Suburban Alumnae Association of Alpha Delta Pi will hold its regular meeting tonight in the home of Mrs. H. W. Gilbert of Royal Oak. The evening will be spent making Christmas items for the annual holiday party to be given at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Building.

Farewell Party Given

Mrs. LeRoy Kiefer of Kennebec Ct., Bloomfield Hills (left), entertained at a tea in her home Oct. 22 honoring Mrs. David H. Goodfellow who, with Mr. Goodfellow, moved the following day from their home on Worthington Road, Bloomfield Township, to Torch Lake, Mich. The two women have shared a steadfast friendship since college days. Mrs. Goodfellow's given name is Ida Valentine, after her maternal grandmother who was born Ida Valentine in Birmingham. Her grandfather was Elverton Jenks, who also grew up in Birmingham in the last century. The antique cut glass bowl centering the tea table for the party is now Mrs. Kiefer's but belonged, first, to the original Ida Valentine.

Garden Club Shows Yule Decorations

A workshop of Christmas decorations, with demonstrations by several members, was held by the Cranbrook Branch WNFCA Monday at the Michigan Bank Building, Birmingham. A sandwich luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Henry C. Botsford and Mrs. Dean E. Johnson.

MRS. HAROLD I. Tanner, a past president of the Cranbrook Branch, is a member of the national council. She attended the national council meeting in New York recently.

Members of the branch who will attend the Michigan Division fall council meeting at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Building are Mrs. James Tenney, Mrs. Laurence Herman, Mrs. Harold J. Tanner, Mrs. Walter F. Kuckie-man, and Mrs. C. E. Dalton who will also serve as a hostess.

Woman's Club

Mrs. Melbourne Apple and members of the Modern Living Dept. were hostesses when the Birmingham Woman's Club met Tuesday in the Community House. James C. McDonald presented his program of slides of Cranbrook.

Sports Figure Will Preside at Hills School Panel

A sports panel featuring Van Patrick as master of ceremonies will be presented at a 6:30 p.m. dinner Monday at Bloomfield Hills Junior High School. The program is sponsored by the Bloomfield Hills Branch WNFCA. Members may bring their husbands and children 19 years of age and over.

Mr. Edward J. Anderson will introduce Mr. Patrick, who in turn will introduce two Lions, two Tigers, two Red Wings and two Pistons, participating in the discussion. Chairman of the dinner is Mrs. James S. Pedder.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Frank who live at 4840 Wye Oak? They moved here from Northbrook, Ill. six months ago with their children, Debbie, who is 4, and Carol, now 1. Frank is District Sales Representative with the Union Carbide Co. Both the Franks are graduates of Northwestern University. They enjoy golfing, bridge and bowling.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Marrett of 645 Arlington? They moved here from Arlington, Tex. with Dick, 16, and Pam, 13. Mr. Marrett is manager of product support for LTV-Michigan. He and his wife enjoy bridge and golf.

light weight 8½ ounce hopsacking

BLAZER

charcoal brown charcoal olive black navy camel flame red burgandy charcoal grey putty light blue
French blue

$45

visit our Antique Rooms

The most versatile blazer we have ever had the pleasure to present to our clientele.

Gwynn's

CUSTOM TAILORING AND FINE ATTIRE FOR MEN

112 S. WOODWARD AT MAPLE MI 4-7060

Open Friday Evening
A Well Fitted Garment Is Our Trademark

Devon Gables

(Telegraph at Long Lake Rd.)

PRESENTS A

Fashion Show

EVERY FRIDAY

Starting at noon and continuing through the lunch hour.

MI 4-6800

Fashions by

Jacqueline shops

Birmingham Oak Park