Theologian to Speak on Philippines

BY ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Dr. Robert Wittaker, director of the Diocesan School of Theology in Detroit, will give a talk and show slides of the Philippines Wednesday evening at the Episcopal Church of the Advent on Middlebelt Road. Dr. Wittaker lived for a time in the islands.

His talk will follow a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. by the Episcopal Churchwomen who have invited husbands and teenage sons and daughters to attend.

Church members are particularly interested in Dr. Wittaker's topic, since the Church of the Advent sponsors a partner parish in the Philippines, the Mission of the Immaculate Conception in Malouas.

THE NEW ENGLAND Estates Women's Association will meet Tuesday evening at 8:30 at the home of Mrs. John Owen, 4142 W. Newland Drive.

Cohostesses are Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. Max Hawkins and Mrs. William Higgins.

ALSO ON TUESDAY, there will be a board meeting of the Pine Lake Estates branch WNFCA at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Weddle of Iverness Lane.

Mrs. Harold Payne, president of the club was in Grosse Pointe last Wednesday to attend the full council meeting of the Michigan division, WNFCA. She was accompanied by Mrs. William Grubbs, Mrs. Gene Ringler and Mrs. William Van Lierop.

Also attending the meeting from the Walnut Lake branch were Mrs. G. F. Robert, Mrs. Walter Gorman, Mrs. Neil Lund and Mrs. Henry C. Hall.

The Pine Lake Estates and Walnut Lake branches were two of 95 represented at the meeting.

"COME AS a famous couple," the George Reasoners told their guests, and the variety and originality of the costumes that turned up at their memorable party on Oct. 26 are still topics of conversation.

The Robert Cliffords came as Pygmalion and Galatea, he with chisel and mallet and she in a flowing white Grecian robe.

Alice in Wonderland and the Mad Hatter were present, disguising the Dick Andersons of Beverly Hills. Antony and Cleopatra (Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Leach) were there, as well as their current protagonists, Liz and Dick (the Ken Fetchers of Beverly Hills).

A PAIR of cannibals (the Robert Mahlers) and a couple from outer space (Mr. and Mrs. Ken Otto) added to the lively scene.

The Jack Sparks came as

Annie Oakley and Buffalo Bill, and the George Behfeldts as Anna and the King of Siam. Although they are neighbors on Kingsmill Drive, the Stan Analeya and Paul Walters, unknown to each other, both decided to masquerade as the Flintstones.

THE JOHN KATKES and Louis Vogts were another case of minds running in the same direction when they turned up as two sets of Raggedy Ann and Andy.

A political note was injected by the Robert Careys who arrived in similar sacks, sprayed with gold, on which were inscribed the chemical symbols, H<sub>2</sub>O and Au. Guess who!

The hospitable Reasoners are entertaining again this week end. Their guests will be his aunt and uncle from Parsons, Kan., the A. L. Fergusons.

TWO BIRTHDAY parties are in the news. Mrs. H. K. Schaefer of Fenton was guest of honor Sunday at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sweeney, of E. Newland Drive, where 25 relatives and in-laws gathered for a potluck dinner.

It was also the 18th birthday of Gordon Macheck whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Macheck of Putnam Drive gave a family dinner party for him.

MRS. THOMAS BEWICK of Kingsmill Drive invited neighborhood women to a coffee Friday morning to meet these newcomers: to Kirkwood, Mrs. Thomas Ulrich, formerly of Cleveland; Mrs. James Klascner, now both residents of Kingsmill Drive; and Mrs. Gordon Laramie of Hedgewood who moved here from Detroit.

Other new residents in the township are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Northway of 5766 Kilbrennan Road who came from Southfield, a month ago.

Mrs. Lester Johns of Westmoor Road entertained her pinocle club Wednesday afternoon.
