St. Regis Parents Club Schedules First Dance

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0056

The newly organized Parents Club of St. Regis parish is presenting its "pilot" project, a dance which will be held on Friday, Nov. 15 at the Plum Hollow Country Club. Music will be by Pete Boltrus and his orchestra.

This being a fairly new parish and within the area of many new homes the members of the club are anticipating the attendance of many people who would like to join their neighbors in a "fun" time affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Cruick are chairmen of the dance and have as their co-chairmen on the ticket committee Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mountain of 3259 E. Bradford Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. John Gillespie of 3836 Darcy Drive.

They flew to New York for a five-day vacation where they visited the United Nations Building and saw several plays.

The week end of Nov. 2 found them in Kalamazoo where they visited their son, Harris, at Western Michigan University.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gentzil of Teynham Place are announcing the adoption of their daughter, Mirra Jane, who was born on Oct. 3. The Gentzils also have a son, David.

THE WEATHER was lovely in Denver, the home of the Timber Ridge Trail but the blizzard up on Mt. Estes left much to be desired. Mr. and Mrs. Sias flew to Denver Oct. 19 to attend the convention of the National Association of Independent Insurers.

During their six-day stay in the city the ladies who had accompanied their husbands to the convention were taken on a trip to Boulder City where they attended a luncheon given in their behalf.

ON WEDNESDAY, Oct. 23 a coffee was held in the home of Mrs. Harold Reek, 6009 Lahner—purpose—"calling all women in the Westchester area who would be interested in becoming a den mother for Cub Scout Pack 1010." Mrs. Hugh McVeigh of Westbourne Drive is the pack mother.

THE FRANKLIN Woods Association held its annual dinner-dance on Saturday, Nov. 2 at the Edgewood Country Club. A cocktail hour began at the club at 7 p.m. with dinner served at 8:30 p.m.

Chairmen of the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kirzens who had as their co-chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Steve Tompkins. It was an exceptionally well-attended Association dance with approximately 60 out of their 70 homes represented. Guests had also been invited.

WITCHES and goblins arrived a wee bit early when Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Riggley of Pickering Road gave a Halloween party for their friends and neighbors on Saturday, Oct. 26. In colorful costumes to commemorate the day were Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Fegley, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bequette, Mr. and Mrs. Louis McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. Tex Ragsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nielsen.

Others were Dr. Jean Forester, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Utermohlen. Playing games and a partaking in a buffet supper added to the pleasure of the evening.

ON SATURDAY, Nov. 2 a cocktail party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Newton of Farmingdale Drive. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tempin and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reek.

Afterward the party went on to the Forest Lake Country Club for dinner and dancing but also to see Mrs. Reek model in a fashion show presented for the club members and guests by Jacobsons.

THE BIRMINGHAM Farms Association held a dinner-dance at the Glen Oaks Country Club Nov. 2. A cocktail hour began at 6:30 with dinner served at 8 p.m. followed with dancing to the music of Ponchito and his Orchestra.

Entertainment during the evening was provided by dancers from the Jack Barnes Studios. Chairmen of the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Amundson.

The committee who helped make the dance a success consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Amberg, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Andry, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Farron and Dr. and Mrs. Russell Barnhardt.

MR. AND MRS. Leon Spanier of S. Cranbrook Cross recently flew to New York for a five-day vacation where they visited the United Nations Building and saw several plays.

The week end of Nov. 2 found them in Kalamazoo where they visited their son, Harris, at Western Michigan University.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gentzil of Teynham Place are announcing the adoption of their daughter, Mirra Jane, who was born on Oct. 3. The Gentzils also have a son, David.

THE GIRL SCOUTS of Troop 433 took advantage of the half day off school recently and journeyed by bus to Palmer Park for an afternoon outing.

Mr. and Mrs. George Richard have returned to their Rands Road home following a four-day visit in their former hometown, Cleveland. While Mr. Richard conducted business, Mrs. Richard renewed friendships and attended many luncheons given in her honor.
