BIRMINGHAM KAPPA DELTAS are not only working on their annual Import Fair, to be held in the Knights of Columbus Auditorium, Southfield Road at 13 Mile, Nov. 14 and 15, but in the meantime continue their chauffeuring on the side. Whenever necessary, they tote small fry without transportation to school at the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children and Adults. This is a continuing service to which Kappa Deltas have subscribed for years.

Kappa Delta Alums Plan Import Fair

There's no need to travel the globe in order to enjoy unique imports from all over the world. The members of Kappa Delta Alumnae Association of South Oakland County will bring them to you when they hold their sixth annual Import Fair Nov. 14 and 15. The Knights of Columbus Auditorium, Southfield Road south of 13 Mile Road, will be transformed into a world-wide market place for the sorority's main philanthropic project of the year. As in the past, proceeds from the Import Fair will be given to the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

COLORFUL BOOTHS representing more than 20 countries will include importers in native costume. Visitors will see displays of German crystal, Swedish glass, Bavarian china, pottery, silver and pewter, linens, silks and woven goods. In addition, there will be a variety of Christmas toys for children — dolls, blocks, carved wooden toys and hand puppets. Homemade foreign delicacies will be on sale at the Bake Shop and shoppers can pause for refreshments of free coffee and cookies. Early Christmas shoppers will find Christmas decorations and centerpieces and a large collection of unique Christmas candles on display.

CO-CHAIRMEN of the event are Mrs. Nell Leavens and Mrs. Jerald Stone, both of Royal Oak.

NORTH ADAMS Garden Club Sets Scholarship Tea

By ELIZABETH YATES MI 6-1682

For the past two months the 55 members of the Osage Garden Club branch of the Woman's National Farm & Garden Association, have been working diligently on a series of gift workshops, booth displays, table decorations and tea arrangements, for their forthcoming Osage Scholarship Tea on Monday, from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Birmingham YMCA.

A fall motif will be carried out in the spacious room and at the tea table. Situated in the corners of the room will be eye appealing booths displaying novelty gifts, products of the club's many workshops.

The visitor will find such Christmas as unusual Christmas candles in stained glass containers, Christmas ribbons, bows, ornaments, boot bags, bird cages, holiday aprons and burlesque gifts, and velvet products. For the creative, there will be a booth of partially finished Virginia planters, candle boards and centerpieces and the materials to finish them.

Instructions will also be available at this booth for those that want the help. There will be another of these booths with supplies of fall dried plant materials and plaques.

Tickets may be purchased through any of the Osage Garden Club members or at the door the day of the tea.

Chairmen planning the event are ways and means, Mrs. Ira Wilson II, and Mrs. Ray Embury; tea committee, Mrs. E. B. Rotzbacher and Mrs. Michael Bell; powder puff, Mrs. William Plumb and Mrs. Harry Kregger; needlework, Mrs. Fred Partilion and Mrs. Elmer Kestly; candles and ribbons, Mrs. Joseph Dworski and Mrs. Norman McClure; flower arrangements, Mrs. Fred Stefanski and Mrs. E. A. Linder.

HICKORY HEIGHTS subdivision is holding its annual fall dinner dance in the ballroom at Orchard Lake Country Club on Saturday. Background and dance music will be supplied by the Max Pitt Orchestra.

Chairmen for the dance are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niemyer of Satterlee Drive. Among those directors selling tickets through the three Hickory Heights subdivisions are the Richard Melchers of Spur Hill; the Peter Mann of Fox Hill; the William Hamiltons of Parklane Court; the Richard Rogers of Rock Spring; the Charles Adams of Satterlee; the David Muir of N. Valley Chase, the Robert Grindleys of Meadowlane.

MANY AREA residents will be entertaining at cocktails prior to the Hickory Heights dinner dance. The Vern Rogers of Rock Spring Road invited a group in the William James of Satterlee Road are another couple hosting a cocktail party.

The William Hassards of Satterlee Road entertained at a cocktail party on Sunday afternoon Nov. 1. The group included the Robert Behan of Grospe Pointe, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Hassard. Thirty-five close friends and relatives were present to congratulate the couple. The wedding took place in Grospe Pointe Aug. 24.

A GROUP OF wives who have known each other since Birmingham High school days and their husbands have been gathering monthly for pot luck suppers for the past 12 years.

On Nov. 1, the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Peterson of Burning Brook. The group included the James Herbats of Rock Spring Road; the Bruce Hance of Parklane Court; the Richard Ericks of Orchard Hill Drive; the Harry N. Wietings and the Walter Naas of Bloomfield Hills; the Carl Blaumans, Jr.; and the Charles Adams of Birmingham.
