Y-Teen Girls Plan Project In Clawson

Mrs. Frank Kros, 2509 Chelsea, Beverly Hills, and her branch teenager committee will lead a Christmas gift workshop for eight groups of junior and senior high Y-Teen Girls at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Oakland Branch, YWCA, Clawson. Girls will start work on such novelty articles as curler holders, yarn ectopi, slipper sox and painted soap bars. They will finish them at home for their annual Dec. 8-14 sale. The sale will open at the hanging of the greens program at the branch, with proceeds going to the "YW" World Fellowship Fund. The workshop is the third service project of the month-old Y-Teen Variety Club, open to all 12-16-year-old girls, meeting from 4 to 5:30 p.m. each Thursday at Oakland. Variety Y-Teen Girls will stay through the 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. World Fellowship Pancake Supper today, serving as waitresses and selling their own home-baked goods.

LAST WEEK the group completed its first service project of cleaning and mending old clothes used by playroom tots in the branch Ladies' Day Out program at Grant School, Ferndale—between bowling and a Halloween party.

Registration is open at Oakland Branch, YWCA, Normandy and Crooks for a Nov. 15-17 week end of "roughing it" at Camp Cavell, near Lexington, Mich., for girls, ages eight to 14. Girls will tramp the 43 acres of woods around Cavell which borders Lake Huron, cook their food over camp fires and sleep in new winterized cabins. Games, crafts and skits will round out activities.

Mary McCarroll, branch executive director, and two mothers from the branch sub-teen committee, will accompany girls, who will be joined by others from Macomb "YW" Campers will leave by bus at 5 p.m., Fri., Nov. 14, from Macomb and return there at 4 p.m. Sun., Nov. 17.

Kathleen Burn, Sheila Cooley and Peggy McKee will go from the Birmingham area.
