Travel Talk
consider this Almost everyone dreams of going to far-away places, including Sally Long (right), a travel counselor at Automobile Club of Michigan's Birmingham Division. Miss Long was among 41 counselors from Auto Club offices throughout the state who spent three days in Detroit recently attending a foreign travel seminar sponsored by AAA's

Comes to B'hams
Irvin Formato has been named manager of the B. Signal Birmingham store. The appointment was announced by Louis A.
Baum, vice president and general manager of the company. Formato came to Birmingham from New York where he worked with B. Altman, Bonwit Teller and Deppina.

Meyer Assumes New Post at Michigan Bell
C. Frederick Meyer, 95 Oak Land, Birmingham, has been named independent company relations manager for the Michigan Bell Telephone Co.
Meyer will coordinate relations with the 79 independent telephone companies throughout the state for Michigan Bell. For the past 10 years, he has been a supervisor on the inter-company relations staff.
Meyer started his telephone career in New York as an assistant engineer and representative in 1929 following his graduation from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N.Y.

World-Wide Travel Service. Miss Long lives at 4711 Hardington, Bloomfield Township.
Discussing places they may someday hope to visit themselves are (left to right) Clarence E.
Stanbury, head of AAA World-Wide Travel, and counselors Barbara Yarger, Albion, Sharon Fraick, Flint and Sally.

HE WAS transferred to Detroit in 1942 as a commercial representative for Michigan Bell. Meyer held several commercial department supervisory positions before being named general commercial staff engineer in 1952. A year later, he was named independent company relations supervisor, a post he held until his latest promotion.
Active in community affairs, he worked for 12 years in the Boy Scout movement, holding Cub and Scout posts as committee member, chairman, and assistant scout master.
He was on the PTA executive committee here from 1946-62, and was president and later program chairman of the Adams and Barnum and Derby Junior High PTA groups. He is presently superintendent of the First Presbyterian Church of South Lakes school.
