A Few 'Live Ones' Came, Too!

Mr. and Mrs. Judge W. Bearden of Birmingham were recent hosts at cocktails and dinner. Guests included committee chairmen and past presidents of the DAC Beavers, intra-club swimming group, and team captains of the basketball team. Mr. Bearden, current president of the Beavers, saw to it that decorations throughout the house (courtesy of the kids' stuffed animal collections!) were in keeping. Inside and out, the little animals were perched at random. William A. Prew (left), Mrs. Prew and Mrs. George Webb watch their host and ("friend") in action.

Pine Lake WNFGA Plans Candle Talk

By ELIZABETH VAN LON
MI 7-2324

Candle arrangements by Mrs. Robert Beasley is the program planned for tonight's meeting of the Pine Lake Estates branch WNFGA. Mrs. Beasley is a member of the Valley Woods Branch of the association.

The meeting will take place at 8 at the home of Mrs. William Grubba, 3627 MacNichol Trail. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Robert Thoren and Mrs. William Sharkey.

THE NOVEMBER session of The Bras Three Association couples' bridge tournament takes place Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Yevich, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fowle and Mr. and Mrs. Willard McPhee will play at the home of the George Bywaters on Inveray Road.

The Joseph Flubachers of Balantrae Road will be hosts to Mr. and Mrs. John Gorsuch, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Norman McClure. The John Mulford, Clifford Jacks and Bill Bishop will meet at the home of Mrs. Gerald Matz on Loch Lomond.

THE EVENING bridge group of the New England Estates Women's Association will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ben Sweeney, 4170 E. Newland Drive.

The Brookfield Highlands bridge club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. William Higgins on Ogden Drive.

TWO NEW Brownie Scout troops have been formed under the leadership of Mrs. Richard Bannister of Darramont Road and Mrs. J. James Kiasner of Kingsmill Drive.

Mrs. Bannister's troop of 20 girls meets Wednesday afternoons at Meadow Lake School. Assistant leader is Mrs. Donald Urban of Sutters Lane.

Mrs. Kiasner, although knee-deep in unpacking and getting settled after a move from Bloomfield Farms to Kirkwood on Nov. 1, held a mother's meeting Monday morning at the home of her assistant leader, Mrs. James Costello of Pebbleshire Road. The troop of 17 Brown Scouts had their first meeting Tuesday afternoon at Meadow Lake School.

Dr. and Mrs. John P. Thomson of Middlebelt Road will return Saturday from a short trip to Florida.

THE JUNIOR and senior divisions of the Bloomfield 4-H Club each had a Halloween party, highlighted by a hayride.

Mr. and Mrs. William Puhl of Parkland Drive, whose three daughters, Colleen, Bridget and Sheila, are in the club, were hosts to both groups.

The juniors, 36 strong, got together Oct. 30. Sheila Puhl was chairman in the arrangement assisted by Michael Griffin and Lance Lawlor.

The seniors—44 in number—held their party on Nov. 2 with Randy Jacobson as chairman. On his committee were Marilyn Mahay, Sheryl Maund, Marilyn Hillier and Terry Hauswirth.

ON OCT. 16 Mrs. Robert Beemer and her first grade class from Meadow Lake School went on a field trip to Kensington Metropolitan Park. They were admiring the famed flock of Canadian geese that inhabit Kingfisher's Lagoon when a park official snapped their picture.

A lovely study of dappled water, a dozen geese and Mrs. Beemer and two of her students was printed in the travel section of the Nov. 3 edition of the Detroit News.

The children pictured were Patricia Ezell, daughter of the James Ezells of Quanton Road, and Brian Shoener, son of the Harvey Shoeners, of Eastmoor Road.

THE JOE KOSZKAN enthusiast for treasure hunts is so contagious that two carloads of neighbors from the Bras accompanied them on the last hunt of the season Nov. 2.

Following clues through cemeteries in Garden City, Wyandotte and other Wayne County communities were the Shoeners, Adam Boraskis', George McIntyres and John Kodrichs.

It was the Kodrichs' first hunt. No one came in early enough to win a prize but dividends in fun were high.

LESLIE COX, who was recently elected to the board of directors of the National Chinchilla Breeders Association of America returned Sunday from Denver, Colo., where he had attended the group's annual convention.

A recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Evans of Westmoor Road was her nephew, Larry Archer, who was home on leave after a year-and-a-half stint with the Air Force in Okinawa. On Nov. 15, he will report to SAC headquarters in Black Hills, S. D.

THE ROBERT EISENS of Eastmoor Road were in Oxford, O., over the week end for the celebration of "Dad's weekend" at Miami University where their daughter, Lynne, is a junior.

The previous Saturday Mrs. Eisen returned from a busy but happy two weeks in Silver Springs, Md., where she had helped to take care of her first grandchild, Kelly Lynn, born Oct. 18. Kelly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Eisen.

FOUR PLANE rides, two by jet, and a football game recently provided an excitement-packed week end for Louis and David Meldman.

On Nov. 1, the brothers, 11 and 9, and their dad, Leonard Meldman of St. James Drive, flew by jet to Chicago. The following day they flew to Champaign, Ill., for the Purdue-Illinois game, and returned home on the 3rd, again by jet.

The night before flying to Chicago, the boys, who are students at Brookside School, attended a Halloween party there. David, masquerading as Jackie Kennedy, won honorable mention for his costume.
