

Men's Fellowship Sets Father-Son Church Banquet

The Men's Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Birmingham will hold its Third Annual Father-Son Banquet on Tuesday at 6 p.m. at the church.

The program will begin with the showing of "Night in a Pet Shop," featuring the antics of a little monkey who finds himself loose overnight in a pet shop. This will be followed by "Fun Factory," a film of the wild slapstick comedies of the silent movies.

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m., after which there will be a program featuring Trooper Stan Snyder of the Michigan State Police. He will have with him "Rozzie Amner," a life-size mannikin which he will use in his demonstrations.

THE CHURCH'S Boy Scout troop and their dads have been invited to attend. In addition, Harry Peterson, of 261 Baldwin, an Advisor of the Senior High Pilgrim Fellowship, is making arrangements to have a group of Camp Oakland boys attend. Anyone wishing to sponsor a boy, call the church office, MI 6-4511. All members of the Men's Fellowship and friends are invited.

Services

held at First Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m. Wednesday evening, Nov. 27 in the Sanctuary.

Prudential organ music played by L. Robert Shusser, minister of music, will include a toccata on the familiar "Come Ye Thankful People Come," and "Now Thank We All Our God," by J. S. Bach.

THE CECILIAN Choir of 65 junior high school girls under the direction of Mrs. Richard Fitzgerald will sing a setting of "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones," by K. K. Davis, and "Glorious Forever," by Rachmaninoff.

Dr. W. Glen Harris, pastor of the church, will preach on "Thoughts That Prompt Thanksgiving," using as a text, "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you." The service is open to the public.

REDEEMER LUTHERAN This year's day of national praise and thanksgiving to God for material and spiritual blessings will be remembered again in special services at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Birmingham. Service time on Thanksgiving Day is 9:30 a.m.

The largest gathering of choral voices in the history of this congregation will be assembled in the Chancel of the church this day. The 80 voice children's choir, the 40 members of the youth choir and the senior choir will join in a combined choral rendition of Goldsworthy's "Come, Ye, Thankful People Come."

Birmingham Pastor To Participate in Forefathers' Day

Rev. Howard E. Bull, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational Church of Birmingham, along with deacons, choristers and other members of the church, will participate in a special Forefathers' Day Festival at Highland Park Congregational Church, Second and W. Grand Avenues, Highland Park, at 7 p.m. on Sunday. Mr. Bull is one of eight Congregational Ministers participating in the special service.

Sponsored by the Southeastern Michigan Association of Congregational Churches, the Festival will be in honor of the heroic Pilgrim men and women who established Plymouth Colony 345 years ago.

Principal speaker will be Dr. Harry R. Butman, former moderator of the National Association of Congregational Churches, and pastor of the Congregational Church of the Messiah, Los Angeles. The title of his address is "The Heart of the Puritan."

McDonald Appointed To Music Committee

Kent McDonald, organist and choirmaster of St. James Church, has been appointed by Gov. George Romney to be a member of the Music Committee of the Michigan Council For the Arts. The goal of this organization is to preserve our cultural heritage and to foster a greater appreciation of the arts in Michigan.

Dean of the Detroit Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, Mr. McDonald graduated from the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y., and studied privately in New York City on a scholarship. He was co-chairman of the National Convention of American Guild of Organists in Detroit in 1960, and directed the opening service of the general convention of the Episcopal Church in Detroit in 1961.

his foetal discretion on the community?

I don't like to live in a community run by teenagers, and I don't want to live in a country that is governed, even in part, by that growing minority.

I AM ALSO most definitely opposed to the operation and planning of demonstrations, in public, by the ministers of this community to promote the passage of any legislation, national or local.

No, I am not "against everything."
