Bevy of Cousins to Visit Thanksgiving

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Eleven little cousins, their parents and grandparents will celebrate Thanksgiving Day together at the home of the A. J. Richters on Erory Lane.

The Richter children, 5, 4, and 2, will be joined by their eight Nelson cousins, ranging in age from 11 to 1, the children of their mother's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nelson of Bench Road.

Also part of the lively scene will be Mrs. Richter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Nelson of Franklin.

LYNN ROARK, daughter of the Mayford Roarks of Raven Road, will march with the Groves High band in Hudson's Thanksgiving Day parade. Groves will be one of 10 bands, chosen from 100, taking part in the event.

Members of the Brookfield Highlands Garden Club will gather at the home of Mrs. Robert Mooney, 4532 Middleton Court, for a Christmas workshop on Monday at 12:30 p.m.

IN CONJUNCTION with American Education Week, Principal William E. Foust invited community leaders to visit Walnut Lake School.

Accepting the invitation and touring the premises on Nov. 13 were Dr. John Blackhall Smith, superintendent of Birmingham schools; Mrs. Deloris Little, Bloomfield Township clerk; Chief Mel Will of the West Bloomfield police; Mr. J. B. Rahard, West Bloomfield supervisor; Mr. Floyd R. Griffith, manager of the National Bank of Detroit's new branch at Maple and Inkster; Mr. Charles Lloyd and Dr. Vincent Gresson, president and treasurer, respectively, of the Walnut Lake PTA; and Mr. Dan Kirsch of Kirck Studios.

FOLLOWING the tour, Mrs. Albert Hastings presided over a
