Miss Kittle, Mr. Maier Wed in Evening Ceremony

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

At a seven o'clock ceremony on Saturday, Nov. 16, 225 guests witnessed the exchange of vows between Barbara Elizabeth Kittle and Richard Lee Maier at the Northbrook Presbyterian Church. Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Kittle of Westlady Drive, chose a white tulle gown with wrap-around train and a pearl crown with a fingertip veil for the double ring candle-light ceremony.

Maid of honor Miss Karen Pasutun of Arlington Drive wore a floor length gown of turquoise brocade and carried a nosegay of mums and carnations as did bridesmaids Judith and Shirley Kirk, Jacqueline Lowe, and Jeanne White.

THE EIGHT-YEAR-OLD flower girl Ruth Anne Duvel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Duvel of Eastlady Drive, was a miniature duplicate of the bridesmaids. Here from Lansing for the wedding were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Behrens and best man Charles Klatt. Ushers included the bride's brother, Kenneth Kittle, Jr., Ray Canfield, Richard Larkin and Thomas Ford.

Guest minister Dr. Allan A.

Zaun of the Jefferson Ave. Presbyterian Church, who baptized Barbara and her brother as infants, officiated. A buffet supper and dance at Plum Hollow Golf Club preceded the couple's honeymoon trip South. They will make their home in Chicago.

DO YOU HAVE a new neighbor? A nice way to make her feel welcome is to invite her and a few of your friends from the neighborhood in for coffee and rolls as Mrs. William Wyckoff of Madison Road did last Friday morning.

There to meet Mrs. Sam Romeo, new resident of 16069 Buckingham, were Mrs. LeRoy Behne and Mrs. James E. Robbins.

A VERY special 80-year-old guest spent the month of October with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wright of Leemore Drive. Mrs. LeRoy Talcott of Wakefield, Mass., mother of Mrs. Wright, made her 60th flight on this visit.

Mrs. Talcott, who first began traveling by air 20 years ago, flies regularly here and there around the country and loves it. Since her mother is especially fond of Franklin, Mrs. Wright took her out that way several times to enjoy scenery, cider, and donuts.

WORKING HARD on the many things necessary to a successful project are Mrs. Donald Conrad, Mrs. Robert Tull, Mrs. William Price, Mrs. Rolf Carey, and Mrs. John Musto, who, for weeks have been preparing for the Sleighbell Fair.

Sponsored by and held at the Congregational Church of Birmingham, the fair opens at 10 a.m. today, featuring antiques, hand-knits, baked goods, doll clothes, and Thanksgiving and Christmas arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harrison, Jr. of Orcutt Court have named him Kipling Wheeler Harrison. Born Sept. 29, Kip checked in weighing nearly eight pounds. Big brothers John, 8, and Danny, 12, were reported to be having fun with their new brother.

MEMBERS OF THE Valley Woods Branch of the WYNSA spent six hours last week working on several projects at the Bellvine Trail home of Mrs. Hans Fredrickson.

After voting on their constitution, the women split into groups with puffed making Christmas wreaths of nuts, cones, fruit, or dried materials to use in their homes next month, under the tutelage of Mrs. J. C. Calhoun.

The other members worked on various articles which will be sold at a card luncheon on Dec. 5. Hostesses Mrs. Gerald Joynt, Mrs. Frank Neward, and Mrs. R. B. Webster provided sustenance for all the willing workers.

A neighborhood group of eight women will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. James E. Robbins to play their favorite game of bridge, and enjoy dessert afterwards. Those attending will be Mrs. William Wyckoff, Mrs. Don Lynch, Mrs. Ward White, Mrs. Wesley Bearden, Mrs. Clifford Prew, Mrs. Phil Riley, and Mrs. Roger Clancy.

MRS. HERSHEL Brazil, brand new resident of Orcutt Court, has found time already to entertain her pinochle group of school friends since moving here from Dearborn.

The Brazils and their four sons especially like the wide open spaces this area has to offer. James, 9, attends Valley Woods School and David, 12, is making new friends at Berkshire Junior High, leaving preschoolers Tommy and Danny at home.
