34 Kids to Attend Turkey Day Parade

GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

Thanksgiving Day will not only mean turkey and all the trimming for the children of the Still Meadow subdivision but a special trip also. Thirty-four children and their parents, all residents of Still Meadow, will board a chartered bus Thanksgiving morning and journey to Detroit to attend the gala parade to be climaxed with Santa's arrival from the North Pole.

Among those anticipating the turkey day parade will be the families of the Jack McBrides, the Vincent Hayes, Bill Sennetts, Gil Dimiters, Paul Reimenschnyder, and the Chuck Noellers.

Others include the Bob Asmus, Albert Roberts, Ray Flynn, Don Davids and the Dale Knowlens.

ON NOV. 23, Elizabeth Ann (Betty) Tilley will become the bride of Joseph A. Tatuske. Betty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tilley of Thornbrier Way, Still Meadow. Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tatuske of Syracuse, N. Y.

The wedding will take place at St. Hugo of the Hills at 10 a.m. Mr. and Mrs. Tilley will host a wedding brunch at Forest Lake Country Club following the ceremony. The Tilleys will also open their Thornbrier Way home for a reception for out-of-town guests on Saturday evening.

Among the out-of-town guests that will be arriving this week for the wedding and be house guests of the Tilleys are grandmothers of both the bride and groom. Coming from Syracuse for her grandson's wedding will be Mrs. Robert J. Bates. Arriving from Kearney, N. J. will be Mrs. Tilley's mother, Mrs. Lillian M. Shields.

75th Year Is Marked By Tri Delt

Birmingham alumnae of Delta Delta Delta celebrated their 75th anniversary at a Founder's Day luncheon Wednesday at Red Run Golf Club. Detroit and Dearborn alumnae chapters were special guests. Mrs. Richard E. Diederich was general chairman of the event. Mrs. James Gullberg introduced Bernice Spencer who spoke of 75 years of Tri Delta. Miss Spencer was recently named one of the Top Ten Working Women in the city of Detroit. As assistant principal of Southwestern High School, she devoted forty-nine years to the education of children.

THE CANDLELIGHTING service and chapter roll call was conducted by Mrs. William Malloy. The North Woodward Group, under the direction of its president, Mrs. Lyle E. Mehlbacher, decorated the tables.

Delta Delta Delta was founded on Thanksgiving eve in 1888 at Boston College. There are now 108 collegiate and 318 alumnae chapters.

Delta Kappa Gamma Hears Mrs. Romney

Mrs. George Romney was the guest speaker at a noon luncheon meeting Saturday at Devon Gables of the Birmingham chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an international society of women educators.

Other chapters invited were two from Windsor, Ont., Detroit; Dearborn, Pontiac and Rochester. The Hills, girls' choral group from Bloomfield Hills High School, will present a musical program at the luncheon.

Mrs. Romney's subject was "The Broad Advance." Three Bloomfield Hills teachers Mrs. Richard Thomas, chairman; Mrs. Paul Carter and Mrs. John Clouse — handled the arrangements. Mrs. Huber Lear, president of the Birmingham chapter, acted as hostess.

Have You Met . . .

SPECIAL GUESTS included Ola Hiller of Flint, past international president, and State President Jean O'Conner of Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seghi and their year-old son, Jon Robert, who moved here from Berkeley and are living at 1594 Witherbee, Birmingham? Mr. Seghi is employed as a special agent to General American Life Insurance Co., Southfield. Their combined hobbies include painting, model railroading and amateur sports car racing.

Memorial Window Dedicated Sunday

Big Beaver Methodist Church in Troy will dedicate a new memorial window at the 11 a.m. service this Sunday.

The window, a gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawson Lockhart and Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Remshaw and other friends and relatives, was given in memory of James L. Lockhart, Jr., who was killed in an auto accident last fall.

Installed above the Communion table, it is entitled "Christ at Prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane."

The staff of a local stain glass firm designed and installed the project, while the late Edward C. Buddeke executed the hands and heads of the figure.

Make a list of those "don't needs" today. Dial MI 4-1100 and a Classi Lassi will help you.
