Christmas Cookie Party Lures Masfield Residents

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

Mrs. Bruce Bouwkamp of Masfield Drive sent out holiday-decorated invitations a week ago inviting 35 area friends and neighbors to "come to a Christmas Cookie Party."

The party was held on Wednesday evening with each of her guests taking two to three dozen of their own favorite home-baked Christmas cookies and the recipe to make same. After the last guests arrived coffee was served and the sampling of cookies and the exchange of the Christmas recipes filled the evening.

The Richard Kunnings of Greentree Road will be spending the Thanksgiving holiday week end in Washington, D. C. visiting their son-in-law and daughter, the Dale W. Browns.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 1019 met on Monday evenings at 7:30 at the Hickory Grove School. Boys in the Eastover School area interested in becoming a Boy Scout are welcome.

On the week end the Scouts took part in a campout at the Charles Howell Scout Reservation. In December, Troop 1019 will join other Scouts in a city-wide Polar Bear Hike.

Scoutmaster of the troop is Bill Ludwig of Warwick Drive; assistant scoutmasters are Bruce Bouwkamp of Masfield Drive and Bill Beachamp, fourth grade teacher at Eastover School.

School Head Talks

Donald M. Currie, Royal Oak Superintendent of Schools, was the principal speaker at Wednesday's general meeting of the Johnson-Niles PTA in Troy.

His talk was entitled "The Pendulum."

"Open School" Set

The new addition to the Hickory Grove School, Bloomfield Hills, will be open for parental inspection at the Monday, Nov. 25, meeting of the PTA.

Open house will follow the regular business meeting scheduled for 8 p.m.

Smiles Are Bustin' Out All Over

By GEORGIA JESSUP
MA 6-3237

Spring River in Granbrook Village is bursting with proud Kuntzmanns and proud grandmothers named Kuntzmann.

Reason for the smiles was the arrival on Nov. 7 of Richard Bennett Kuntzmann, who is the first child of the Dale Kuntzmanns of Spring River. Richard weighed seven pounds and 14 ounces.

Richard was welcomed home by Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett (Mrs. Kuntzmann's parents), who came from Williamsburg, Va., to be houseguests of their daughter and son-in-law.

Also on this welcoming committee are the Elmer Kuntzmanns of Osoda, who are Mr. Kuntzmann's parents. They are the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kuntzmann, also of Spring River but two houses away.

The Optimist Club of Southfield will convene for a dinner meeting this evening at a dinner meeting this evening at Howard Johnson's Restaurant at Ten Mile and Northwestern.

Following the 6:45 dinner, Optimist members and their wives will tour the Main Post Office in Detroit. Speaker for the evening will be D. P. Woodbury, chief postal inspector for the Southfield area.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Raish and Mrs. Genevieve How are heading a committee making plans for a gala New Year's Eve party. It will take place following the Red Wing hockey game in the Olympia Club at the stadium. It will be for the Red Wings, their wives and members of the club only.

Jeffery Vincent Zatlouf, son of the Vincent Zatloufs of Sunset Blvd., Lathrup Village, will take Janice Ann Geyer as his bride on Nov. 30. Janice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Earl Geyer of Ferndale. The wedding will take place in St. James Church in Ferndale.

Among the out-of-town guests coming for the wedding will be Mr. Zatlouf's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Zatlouf of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. John Dugan (the former Ginnie Stolts), who were former residents of Lathrup and are now living in Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Toivo Kauppi of Midland. Mrs. Kauppi was the former Mary Schmidt and former township editor of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Neighborhood Notes from Peggy

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2632

Mr. and Mrs. Peter G. Shepar and five-month-old daughter arrived in Birmingham today for a two-week visit with Mr. Shepar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Shepar, 930 Hazel St. Peter, who now lives in Los Angeles and works for Continental Air Lines, graduated from Seaholm High School five years ago. Immediately after graduation he joined the United States Marine Corp. This is his first visit home since then.

The Donald K. Pills entertained their bridge club Nov. 8 in their home at 1808 Banbury, Birmingham. Guests who enjoyed a potluck supper and an evening of cards were Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kale and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Runyan all of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil, son Lynn and daughter Melody are going to Charleston, W. Va., for Thanksgiving. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Davin Anderson and children Peggy, David and Steve, former residents of Birmingham.

IT'S A BOY for Mr. and Mrs. W. Richard Clemence (Sylvia Hemming, Pleasant Ridge). Mark Harold was born Nov. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Clemence, 1748 Banbury, have another child, Michael, age 2.

It's that time of year when natives of Michigan take down their red caps and jackets and migrate to the north woods.

This year Hugh Murray, 1599 Bowers, hunted near Cheboygan the weekend of Nov. 15, staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice B. Murray who live in Cheboygan.

at Canada Greek Ranch, Atlanta, Mich., for another weekend of deer hunting.

Dr. James A. Fannin, 1388 Hazel, and son Jimmie, age 8, spent the weekend of Nov. 8 staking bear at the tip of the Upper Peninsula. They stayed at a motel at Copper Harbor and the bears stayed snug in their shelters, evidently, because Dr. Fannin and Jimmie hunted in the rain but never got a glimpse of a bear.

MR. AND MRS. Lew Churchill and son David, 335 N. Eton, are planning to be at their cabin on Lake Mitchell near Cadillac for Thanksgiving weekend. Dr. and Mrs. Calvin P. Taylor, 1646 Earlmont, Berkley, will join them. Dr. Churchill, who has never missed going north during deer hunting season, and Dr. Taylor expect to spend the weekend hunting.

Dr. and Mrs. Taylor, daughters Sandy and Paula, and son Steve used to live in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Goodburne moved to 1648 Hazel from Pontiac Oct. 29. The Goodburnes have a daughter, Karen, age 2. Mr. Goodburne, a graduate of Michigan College of Mining and Technology, is with General Motors Corp. Truck and Coach plant engineering department.

Mr. Goodburne spent deer hunting near Alpena this season, staying with his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wilson of Alpena.
