It's A Dog's Life

These four young poodles seem to be putting their noses together to work out a plan, at least to discuss the latest world problems. Actually, they are just being readied for the 17th annual Motor City Specialty Show to be held at the Detroit Artillery Armory, 15000 West Eight Mile, on Sunday. The four pups are litter mates and will be entered in the show. Their owners are Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, Mrs. William McCall and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Haynes. The dogs' names are Hornpipe Siam, Hornpipe Topaz, Hornpipe Cairo and Hornpipe All That Jazz—and that's quite a mouthful.

The annual Southfield Goodfellow newspaper sale will be held on Monday Dec. 2.

Salesmen are urgently needed to make Christmas a happy holiday for all the area's needy children and families according to co-chairmen, Leon Avedisian, William Kemper and Richard Overmyer.

The Southfield Goodfellow membership consists of representatives from civic, social and religious organizations drawn from an area which covers Lathrup Village, Beverly Hills, Franklin, Bingham Farms and the City of Southfield.

POTENTIAL salesmen may contact the co-chairmen or area captains Tom Costello, Leo Gee, Clarence Durkin, Edward Tafelki, Wayne McDonnell and Joseph Desnoyers.

During the last four years the Southfield Goodfellows have packed and distributed 1148 cartons of clothing, shoes and toys for boys and girls and have aided in the distribution of 384 baskets of food for families at Christmas time.
