

FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Skate Sale Boon To Sports-Minded

NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

It is always clearly evident that Franklin is a "growing" community when the Franklin Community Association holds its annual skate sale.

Scheduled for Dec. 14 from noon till 3:30 p.m. at the Franklin Community Church, the sale affords an opportunity to turn in out-grown winter sports equipment for resale and a chance to buy the next size, slightly used.

George Spindler, chairman of the association's Youth Committee, announces that items of winter sports equipment such as skates, skis, sleds, toboggans, boots, jackets and sweaters can be left at his home 21173 Ramble Road, or at either the Franklin Hardware or Leslie Cleaners prior to the sale, or at the church on that Saturday morning between 9:30 a.m. till noon. In any case, it is hoped that these items will be properly cleaned, tied if in pairs, and priced. The association merely conducts the sale as a civic service. It has proven very popular as a pre-Christmas shopping event.

THE THIRD annual PTA card party will be held next Friday night, Dec. 6, at the Franklin School. Dessert and table prizes are being offered to highlight a traditionally social evening for parents and friends of the village school.

Mrs. Joseph Bickert is the chairman of the affair which will start at 8 p.m. There seems to be a tendency in the John Hildebrand family of S. Cromwell to keep the freshman honors at St. Saint Joseph College in the family.

Young Guitarist Incident Reaches Suburbia Today

Freshman daughter, Barbara, was elected secretary of her class just as her sister, Patricia, now a senior, was three years ago. Both girls will be home for the Thanksgiving weekend, taking a recess from their studies at the school in Cincinnati. Barbara graduated from Marian High School in June.

HOUSEGUEST OF Dr. and Mrs. Harlow Bates of 13 Mile Road is Mrs. E. P. Ernest of Arvada, Colo. Mrs. Ernest is here to visit Mrs. Bates' mother, Mrs. Alice Allen.

Home sooner than expected was Marilyn Owens, Vermont University student daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owens of Franklin Park Drive. Classes were dismissed upon news of the untimely death of President Ken-

Edan see in many adults. The item has been picked up by the Suburbia Today magazine and appears in its "Getting Around" column in the December issue, coming with your Dec. 12 Birmingham Eccentric.

AN ARTICLE sure to capture interest is Ogden Nash's "Let Yule be Cozy and Suburban." And Norman Vincent Peale tells of his own recent visit to the Holy Land in "The Trip of a Lifetime." Be sure to see these and other interesting, informative articles in Suburbia Today coming in the Dec. 12 Eccentric.

Planning Their Gift to B'ham

For the past twenty-six years, Birmingham Branch, WNFPA, has offered as its gift to the community a two-day Christmas Show traditionally held at the Community House. This year's event will take place Wednesday, Dec. 4, 3 to 9 p.m., and Thursday, Dec. 5, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Among those helping with exhibits are Mrs. H. F. Bundy (from left), Mrs. Richard M. Kaltz and Mrs. Harry O. Hoyt, Jr.
