Hostess, Guests Wear Kilts for 'Tartan Tea'

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

What could be more appropriate at a Tartan Tea than to be welcomed by a kilt-clad hostess? The 75 guests who attended the recent afternoon affair at the Arlington Drive home of Mrs. William C. Simpson were greeted in just that fashion. In fact, some of the guests arrived wearing kilts, also.

Sponsored by the Earl of Bessborough Chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire, the group met to raise funds for their philanthropic endeavors, and bazaar items and baked goods were available for purchase.

Cohostess Mrs. John Heaton of Lathrup Village, Mrs. Gordon Fox, regent, and other members, assisted Mrs. Simpson.

MR. AND MRS. Stuart Kelly, Jack, 12, and Michael, 21, a student at Michigan State University, spent last week end at Gaithersburg, Md. The occasion was the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. Kelly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Musser.

All 12 of the Musser's children, and 49 grandchildren, including the Kelly's married sons, James and his wife, as well as other relatives and friends were there for the Sunday celebration.

The buffet dinner was held in a hall which was decorated in white and gold for the occasion.

eight pounds, two ounces at birth, Laurie is the recipient of much attention from Steven, 2½.

MRS. ELIAS HEICK has recently returned from Moine, Ill., where she helped arrange a brunch buffet with her mother, Mrs. Estey Johnson, two sisters, Mrs. Robert Bell and Mrs. Nancy Lyons, and sister-in-law Mrs. Richard Johnson.

This was no ordinary brunch, as 250 friends attended the affair at the Short Hills Country Club, and were greeted by the five women in a reception line. Mrs. Heick also assisted with the decor which consisted of centerpieces of fall foliage, bitter-sweet, gourds, turkeys and mums.

On the trip home, Mrs. Heick stopped to visit daughter Sandra Hall at Western Michigan, who will be home for the Thanksgiving vacation. Robert Hall, who attends Ferris State, will also spend his vacation at home.

ON SUNDAY, Nov. 10, members of Alpha Chi Omega sorority were hosts to their fathers at a Dad's Day program at Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant. Among those attending from this area were Mr. Donald Conrad and Mr. Donald Voelker, whose daughters Donna and Vee are not only members, but also officers of their sorority. The girls and their dads attended the Central Michigan Hillsdale football game, then went to an open house at Sloan Hall recently converted into a Pan-hellenic dormitory by University authorities. A dinner at the Embers concluded the day.

Party to Follow B'ham Musicale

Among those entertaining following the Birmingham Musicale's Scholarship Benefit tomorrow at the Community House, are Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Flanders and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livesay.

The Livesay's guests will be members of the benefit committee and their husbands. They include Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Augustine, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Randall, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Roland King. Also present will be Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hackett and Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Wyckoff.

Co-chairmen of the coffee during intermission will be Mrs. Robert McBride and Mrs. John Edwards.

Ushers for both the afternoon and evening performances will be members of the Junior Music Club. Those serving in the afternoon will be Peggy Westphal, Sally Weiss, Candy Adams and Louise Hohnmeyer. Ushering at the evening performance will be Ruth Johnson, Linda Moakes, Joan Brozik, Brenda Eberole, Sue Perkins and Linda Crumb.

Assisting Ticket Chairman Mrs. Duncan Augustine, are Mrs. Howard Hallas and Mrs. Phillip Flanders on patron tickets and Mrs. Wilson Richards, Mrs. Herbert Gardner, Mrs. Robert Connor, Mrs. Walter Porter, Mrs. Donald Kohte and Mrs. Arthur Welton.

Looking Ahead

Mary Ann Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dillon Woods of Nashville, Tenn., is engaged to Robert Ferrell Baer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Baer of Purian Road, Birmingham. The bride-elect attended St. Cecilia Academy-at-Overbrook, Nashville, and St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind. She made her debut in 1961 at the Cotton Ball in Chattanooga, Tenn. Her fiance is a graduate of the University of Detroit High School and the University of Notre Dame. The pair is planning an early June wedding.

The Birmingham Eccentric

Friday, November 29, 1963

Until one unselfishly yearns and hungers to understand the Bible, it may remain a mystery, a gathering of confused and contradictory ideas. Inspired men and women, we are told chronicled the Bible's contents; only under the spell and impetus of an inspired desire can one really 'get the understanding' within its pages. To know love, you must be in love.
