

Neighborhood Notes from Peggy

By PEGGY HAMILTON
MI 6-2532

Home will be aglow tonight with the excitement of sons, daughters, grandmothers, grandfathers, aunts and uncles arriving for Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert and Robert are coming from Williamsonville, N. Y. to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Carpenter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, 1622 Bowers, Birmingham. The Keith Carpenters are former residents of Birmingham.

Mrs. S. W. Pearn and Bruce, 1415 Birmingham Blvd. Christine attended Michigan State University. Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Curtis have invited relatives to their home, 1557 Bowers, for Thanksgiving dinner. Mr. Curtis' mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Curtis, will come from Kalamazoo; from Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scholten, Mrs. Curtis' mother and father; and

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Berry and family of Flint, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Curtis. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Nicholas, 1535 Bowers, are going to Alpena for the week end to visit Mrs. Nicholas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Lutes.

THANKSGIVING DAY guests of Dr. Dorothy M. Perry, 820 Pemberton Drive, Bloomfield Hills, will be Mr. and Mrs. John B. Tabb, 1666 Bowers. At dawn last Monday Nov. 18, the moving van rumbled up to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mitchell, 1600 Bowers. By dusk the Mitchells, their children, John and Janet, and the furniture had been transported to 31442 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Beverly Hills—but not Peanut, their cat. He disappeared at the crucial moment.

Mrs. Donald W. Schroeder, 1621 Bowers, will present 13 of her piano pupils in a musical program at her home at 2 p.m. today. Taking part in the program are Doris and Linda Salzb, Sharon Scott, Lorrie and Debbie Krahn, JoAnn and Robert Michalski, Joy Allwardt, Debbie Robinson, Bill Bray, Ricky Perry, Carolyn Stief and Kathy Schroeder. Tea and cookies will be served afterward to the musicians and their mothers.

TORRY PTA will present part one of a two-part program on Mental Health Tuesday, Dec. 3 at 8 p.m. in the Torry gym. Bernard Maslanik, Coordinator of Special Services for Birmingham Board of Education, and Mrs. Dorothy Smith, a social worker trained in child development will be the speakers. Maslanik and Mrs. Smith will translate the subject of Mental Health into a non-technical language, according to Mr. Louis D'Ambrosio, program chairman.

Tuesday night's lecture will deal specifically with children in kindergarten through third grades. The second part of the lecture which will be about problems of children in grades four, five and six, to be given Jan. 14.

To Marry

Jennie Elizabeth Nunn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James A. Weldon Nunn of Bloomfield Hills, has set Dec. 21 as the date for her marriage to David Lee Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Nelson of Highland Park. The candlelight service will take place in Kirk-in-the-Hills.

Warm Greeting

Blue skies and warm Caribbean breezes greeted Dr. and Mrs. Watson A. Gilpin, of 1539 Lochridge Road, Bloomfield Hills, as they arrived at Miami, Fla. The couple is here to attend the National Audubon Society Convention.

Christmas Workshop Set By Bloomfield WNFCA

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0656

On Monday, the Bloomfield Park Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will hold a Christmas workshop for their members at the home of Mrs. Gerald Dickson, 7382 Mohanic.

Mrs. Leo Ladehoff and her committee displayed a samples of Christmas decorations at the branch's last meeting and the members signed up to make items of their choice at the workshop which will be held between the hours of 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. and again in the evening from 8 through 11 p.m.

On Wednesday, Dec. 11, the Bloomfield branch will hold its Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Harry White on W. Dartmouth, commencing at 5:15 p.m. A tradition in their group is for each member to bring homemade cookies to sample and socialize over. The balance of cookies left at the end of the evening are then taken to the Pontiac State Hospital for distribution.

THE YOUNG people in the Bloomfield Farms area are to be commended for a project they have begun recently. Forming a "teen club," which will meet once a month in the home of the members, began with their first gathering, commencing at 5:15 p.m. Laske on Indianwood Trail last week end.

The four young people who formed the group are: Bailey Ragsdale, Bob Walter, Marge Boswell and Sue Laske. A millionaires' party was held, together with 30 teenagers came for card playing and other games. Prizes were obtained by the youngsters by collecting trading stamps, white elephants, etc. Proceeds from their first party is to be used for the benefit of needy children.

Laura Rothwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rothwell of Indianwood Trail, was one of the youngsters who modeled ski clothes at a fashion show held through the combined efforts of the merchants at Miracle Mile. Laura with her long braids was seated in a sled. Holly Ragsdale and Sue Laske also modeled in the show.

Mrs. Harold Luvish of Knollwood Circle will soon be known as a commuter to New York at the rate she is going. Nov. 17 she and her husband returned after spending a week in the east attending the National Hotel Convention.

Three weeks prior to that she had been to a decorators convention in New York. All these visits and more to come, are in connection with the opening of the new Holiday Motel which will open this spring on North Telegraph Road. Last summer Mrs. Luvish and her two daughters made an extensive trip along the west coast concentrating on California with the purpose in mind, "decor desired in motels."
