

At the Lanes

Al Kopitzki practices what he preaches. For the second time in three weeks the rotund Northwood Lanes instructor led the Northwood Senior House League in scoring last Thursday night.

Kopitzki's games of 222, 228 in 646, team-mate Howard Felton's 223, 221 in 610 and George Clark's 233 in 590, were no avail as Reckhold Chemical lost three points to Michigan Machine Builders, 2969 to 2914. Bob Costaw's 215, 230 in 640 and Vern Wendell's 250 in 622 led MMR.

Tri-Vending Co. upset L & L Shell for two points, 2753 to 2856. Larry Milford with 234, 203, 201 in 638 and Dick Crossman with 211, 222 in 618 led scoring in the match.

Ron Israel's 258 in 641 and Jim Milford Jr.'s 221 in 606 led Northwood Lanes to a four point triumph over Pierce Realtors, 2807 to 2805.

Basketball

In contrast to the returning players at Seaholm, coach Tom Carson at Groves has only one starter out again this year.

He is center Bill Stephenson, the Falcon quarterback during football season. Stephenson stands 6'2" and is expected to lead the team.

The remainder of the Falcon squad will consist of juniors Bill Sagan, Bob Schaff, Dennis Rafferty and Bill Forester. Only the latter two stand above six feet, as height is a problem for Carson this year.

Seniors Ken Kimball and Russ Seeburger along with junior Dick Balgorthen should provide some help.

Relays

won the Tri-River Conference last year.

Falcon coach Jim Gilster has a several returning swimmers and this season's team which he calls "much better than last year."

Dave Mead, a senior, will swim the 50 and 100 freestyle. Dick Crossman, a transfer from Buchtel High in Akron, O., where his school won the state title, will also be entered in the freestyle sprints.

DAVE ROBERTSON, a junior, will enter most events for Groves, and Kevin Tooma, another junior, will swim the butterfly, individual medley and freestyle.

Senior Gary Geiger will return to the Falcon team in the diving events to help improve on the 8-4 record of a year ago.

Gilster said that the loss of Jim Krogerud through graduation will hurt, but Jim's brother, Rick, a senior and co-captain, should bolster the Falcons. Rick swims in the individual medley.

The Royal Oak Relays begin at 2 p.m. with the preliminary and end with the finals at 8 p.m. Saturday night.

Player Co-Captain

Honors recently were heaped on William G. Lerchen, III, by his soccer teammates at Kenyon College, following completion of the fall soccer season. The Birmingham youth, a graduate of Procter Academy, Andover, N. H., was re-elected co-captain of the team and earned his third varsity letter for his soccer play.

Lerchen, who was injured during the latter part of the season, played center halfback. Coach Bob Harrison, in making the letter award, noted "Bill is a fine athlete and will be part of the nucleus around which next year's edition of the soccer Lords will be built."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Lerchen, Jr., 950 Wadlington Road, Birmingham, Michigan.

The Truth About Deer Hunters

WHEN THE BOYS COME HOME FROM HUNTING
By ALMERO WHITEHEAD
Co-Founder of The Eccentric
Published in Nov. 28, 1913 edition.

When the boys come home from hunting in the fall, and the frost is on the pumpkin and the corn, We'll take it with a grain of salt, but listen to it all, The wildest tales you've heard since you were born. They hunted in the forests of far-off Chippeway, They crossed the faging Straits of Mackinaw, They camped for days together on the banks of Dollar Bay.

Where they missed the biggest buck you ever saw. But then, we'll never "call" them, though they called the lordly Moose.

Even though our side with laughter fairly quakes, And every one's credulity is playing fast and loose, With yarns about New Brunswick's woods and lakes. They'll tell about the wounded buck the other fellow got, But, of course, they wouldn't quarrel with a pard, That tale the other fellow told was simply tommy-rot, So they gave it up, although 'twas mighty hard. They almost killed a monstrous bear, the day they left for home.

We'll never dare dispute them; not at all, We'll draw up near the fire and we'll let their fancies roam, When the boys come home from hunting in the fall.

(Editor's note — Times haven't changed much, have they?)

Wildlife Cook Book Helps Wives Learn To Prepare Game

Wives can learn how to put a flavorful finish to their husbands' shooting success this fall by writing to the Conservation Department Publications Room in Lansing for free copies of "Game Recipes" and "Venison."

The first booklet's recipes run the gamut of good game eating; to tender-sweet heart of deer to venison for candlelight dining. Also offered to light the game gourmet are coquetry tips for venison steaks, rabbit stew, roast wild duck, fried pheasant, grouse à la air, roast beaver and muskrat meat loaf.

Highlighted in the other 16-page guide are field pointers to help the hunter bring his deer home in good condition and tested recipes to assist the housewife in preserving, cooking and serving venison.

Detroit Lions assistant coach Les Bingham now looks small among his own defensive players after losing close to 100 pounds from his peak of 350.

The Detroit Lions lost the services of three regular defensive players, halfback Gary Lowe (Achilles tendon), Carl Brettschneider (knee) and Joe Schmidt (shoulder) in a period of four weeks during the '63 season.
