White Velvet Gown Worn for Wedding

At a ceremony solemnized Friday in St. James Episcopal Church, Sue Faith Edison, daughter of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Hallett D. Edison of Myrtlewood Road, Birmingham, became the bride of Richard Gordon Griffith Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Griffith of Ann Arbor.

The bride wore a white velvet gown fashioned with a scoop neckline embroidered in seed pearls, long sleeves and a bell-shaped skirt. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion fell from a velvet pill box, and she carried a prayer book covered with satin ribbon and centered with white roses. It had been carried by her mother for her wedding.

MRS. GRIFFITH, JR.

DONNA CHURCH of Columbia, S. C., and James Griffith, brother of the bridegroom were honor attendant and best man. Ushers included Daniel Edison, brother of the bride, and Michael Forsythe.

The Rev. Kenneth H. Gass officiated at the 1:00 o'clock service, which was followed by a reception in the lounge of the church. Tradition was again observed when the wedding cake was cut with the saber belonging to the bride's father, just as it was done at his and Mrs. Edison's wedding.

The new Mrs. Griffith is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and her husband is a graduate of Central Michigan University. He has served two years with the United States Army.

The couple will make their home in Denver, Colo.

Highlanders Invite Guests to Dance

Christmas party of the Highlanders Dance Club will be held Saturday evening at Orchard Lake Country Club. It will get under way at 9:30 p.m. to the music of Johnny Titus orchestra.

Members are permitted to invite guests to this event. About 300 persons are expected to attend.

Decorations, which include centerpieces for 30 tables, have been executed by Mrs. George Popovich of Crabtree Road, Mrs. Robert Jacobson of Pine Tree Trail and Mrs. Earl Stuckey of Fieldbrook Road.

Ingathering By WNFGA Scheduled

Members of Oakland Branch, WNFGA, are having luncheon Monday, Dec. 9, at 12:45 p.m. As in the past, this meeting will be an ingathering of Christmas gifts for patients at Pontiac State Hospital.

Members regularly save items that are usable in the Occupational Therapy Dept., but at Christmas bring special gifts and wrappings. Mrs. Eleanor McCurry, director of this department at the hospital, will join the branch as guest of the day.

HOSTESS FOR THE affair will be Mrs. W. H. Ruggles, 355 Coolidge, Birmingham, assisted by Mrs. A. J. Coran, also of Birmingham. Luncheon will be potluck, with members bringing some of their favorite dishes. The holiday theme will prevail, with the table done in green and gold.

Members will also put their artistic talents to work on a gift exchange among themselves. Their gift is not to exceed fifty cents, emphasis to be on the originality and cleverness of the wrapping and trimming of the packages.
