

Host Young People From Many Lands

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 4-3257

The Charles G. McCarthy home on Van Ness Drive in Knob Hill was an unusually busy place over the Thanksgiving holiday. It was crowded with young people, including some from foreign lands.

Mary Ellen McCarthy, who is a junior at Mercyhurst College in Erie, Pa., brought her roommate home with her for the week end. She is Mariette Hugues of Aix-in-Provence, France.

Mary Ellen spent last year in Rome, Italy, studying through a program with Loyola University of Chicago. When the school year was completed she stayed on to go camping on the Rhine during the summer.

Due to her experience in foreign lands and with their peoples, when she learned that Mariette was to be a student at Mercyhurst, she asked for her as a roommate.

COMING BACK on the boat Mary Ellen met Greta Andersen of Denmark. Greta is a student at the University of Copenhagen. She is now working for a semester in Detroit to gain experience in the field of chemistry. Greta spent the day with the McCarthy family and enjoyed all the festivities.

Ayla Ali Riza of Turkey stopped for a visit at the McCarthy home on Wednesday. She was enroute to Ann Arbor for Thanksgiving. Ayla attended an American school in Turkey and came to the United States as an exchange student for her senior year in Erie, Pa. She is now attending Mercyhurst on a scholarship.

Rounding out the family gathering were Charles McCarthy, home from his freshman studies at John Carroll in Cleveland; Mike, a student at Brother Rice; and Sheila, a Marian High student.

IN THE GEORGE H. Cary home on Timberlake Road, it was a family gathering on Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wieting and their two children and Mr. and Mrs. William Wyckoff and their two children (who recently moved back to the area) all made their way to Grandma's house.

The Lone Pine Garden Club will have their annual Christmas luncheon and gift exchange on Dec. 11.

Hostess for the afternoon will be Mrs. James Coquillard in her East Taboumenon Court home. Assisting Mrs. Coquillard will be Mrs. J. Sweeney, Mrs. J. Willingham, Mrs. A. Braun, Mrs. J. Connelly, Mrs. T. Bloom, Mrs. S. Baltzy and Mrs. M. Wiley.

THE ANNUAL musical program of grades one through six of Conant School will be presented Monday in the Bloomfield Hills Junior High School gymnasium. The program will begin at 8 p.m.

Miss Gail Stiegha, music teacher at Conant, will be in charge of The program. There will be special numbers from the newly formed fifth and sixth grade chorus.

All parents are invited to attend the event.

ON MONDAY, Mrs. W. D. Sessener opened her Ottawa Lane home for the annual Christmas party and cookie exchange of the Wing Lake Shores branch, WAFCA.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Richard Gerathy conducted a workshop of Christmas decorations.

Prior to the afternoon meeting, the members of the group that do not participate in the bridge tournament, gathered at Mrs. Sexauer's home for a sale of Christmas items made by members of the branch.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.
