Tiny Guest Marks First Celebration

By MARTI CAHN

Miss Anne Hughes Herrick of Ann Arbor went on her first outing following her birth, Nov. 16, to attend a pollock Thanksgiving Day dinner party at the Birmingham home of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gunn.

Anne's mother is the former Jan Elizabeth Lynch of Birmingham. Her father, William Clemens Herrick, is attending the University of Michigan, where he will receive his master's degree in business administration this month.

Twelve-day-old Anne was the fourteenth member of the group of Birmingham friends who have been celebrating Thanksgiving Day together for the past twelve years.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Herrick and Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Lynch, Anne's grandparents; her aunt, Sally Lynch, home from Purdue University; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Sheehan with daughter, Terry; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Brodie with sons Dick and Jim, Dick from Michigan State and Jim from Hillsdale; Karen Gunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunn.

THE TRADITIONAL Christmas party hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Morse, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills will not be given this holiday season — reason being that the Morses are much too busy entertaining houseguests and making preparations for departure Jan. 8 aboard the SS Mariposa for a two-month South Sea Island cruise.

Daughter Suzanne and Son-in-law James W. Bissell, with children, Deborah and Richard, returned last Monday to their home in Madison, Wis., following a five-day visit with the Morses. Suzanne and the children will have a more extended visit when they return Dec. 15, at which

Friends, Relatives Visit Village for Thanksgiving

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

Beverly Hills residents, just like most Americans, spent Thanksgiving celebrating quietly with family or friends, with a turkey as guest of honor on most tables.

Spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Murray of Buckingham Road were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gilliland, Mr. Jack Hovary, and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Murray, Jr. with their four children, all of Dearborn.

Mr. Robert Funke, former area resident, and 15 relatives in all, drove down from Hancock and Baraga, Mich. to spend the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. John E. Baakko and their children.

THE W. E. HARRISONS of Orcutt Court were invited to have their turkey dinner with Mrs. Jack K. Funke, Mrs. Edward Pileher and Mrs. F. G. Pauli.

MRS. C. BOYD Stockmeyer entertained at her Arlington Drive home on Tuesday with a holiday luncheon and bridge party for to honor Mrs. Louis L. Szep, Birmingham resident formerly of Texas.

Among those present were Mrs. Richard R. Ick, Mrs. Harvey W. Ewald, Mrs. Jack J. Rinehart, Mrs. Robert D. Rowan and Mrs. Charles B. O'Neil.

Harrison's sister's family, the Ted Endres, of St. Clair Shores.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. Buel, Chuck and Patty spent the day with the children's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Johnson, and other relatives at the Johnson's Pontiac residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Richards hosted not only a Thanksgiving dinner for their relatives, but also a 10th wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bokas, and Mr. and Mrs. Bokus' birthday, which all fell on the 28th.

There too, enjoying the celebration with granddaughters Maureen, Cynthia, and Kathleen Richards, was their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Michael Kolbas.

MR. AND MRS. Dallas Sprinkle and sons Curt, Doug, and Eric drove to Akron, O., for their turkey dinner with Mrs. Sprinkle's parents, the George and Mrs. Robert Licht and the Lee Sprinkles.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Light set the table for son Russell, home from U. of M., another son, A. D. Light and his family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Light, a brother of Light.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Licht and Alan, Edward, Daniel, and Deborah, invited Mr. and Mrs. Max Licht of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Licht of Chicago to share the holiday with them.

WITH THANKSGIVING past, Christmas celebrations are already under way. One of the first will be the annual Christmas smorgasbord of the South Berkshire Women's Association which will take place on Tuesday at the Community House.

Arriving that evening with arms laden with home-cooked specialty dishes will be Mesdames Richard Miller, LeRoy Camel, Alex Nead, Anthony Welch, David Rieck, Dallas Sprinkle, Al Light, William Harrison, Marvin Gline, Thomas Richards, Upton Brannack, Eugene Lasko, J. Smith, Frank Kurk, and Philip Diesel.

Following the smorgasbord will be a general meeting and the exchange of gifts among members. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kurk and Mrs. Al Light are planning a surprise game to be played by the women for prizes, and neither would reveal any clues as to what the game might be. Doesn't that sound intriguing?

Mr. Dallas Sprinkle and co-chairman Mrs. Upton Brannack supervised the planning of the affair.

ON SATURDAY, Dec. 14, the South Berkshire group plans to hold its annual Christmas party for the week ends. The one-to-six-year-old children of the association members will be eagerly awaiting Santa's arrival, as he promised to come to the party with his bag of toys.

Punch and cookies will be served, and you may be certain that the youngsters will display their best manners for Mr. Claus' approval. The party will take place at the Embassy Drive home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kurk, and has been planned by a committee headed by Mrs. Thomas V. Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Hughes, Beverly residents for 10 years, have been transferred back to Massachusetts which was originally their home state. Mrs. Hughes preceded her husband by three weeks so that she could house hunt in the Boston area.

AT 8:00 P.M. today, Sister Rose Anthony will explain modern math to parents in the social hall of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs School. Parents of children in grades one through eight are invited to attend.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting. Assisting will be Mrs. George Patchak, Mrs. Erman Savant, Mrs. Robert Perry, Mrs. Alfred McGuire, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. Thomas A. Parks, Mrs. Leo Marsh, Mrs. Edward Gergosian, Mrs. Charles Knight, Mrs. John Varley, and Mrs. Ted Schmitzer.
