

MRS. BARNOW

Bride Wears Ottoman Faile for Marriage

Mary Ann Varblow walked up the aisle of Lutheran Redeemer Church Saturday to become the bride of Thomas Douglas Barnow. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. Varblow of Birmingham and her husband is the son of Albert Barnow of Berea, O., and the late Mrs. Barnow.

The bride wore a gown of ottoman faile in a sunburst silhouette, crystal tiered beads and silk braid accenting the Empire waistline. Matching beads trimmed the Alencon lace headpiece which held her bouffant veil of silk illusion. She carried white miniature roses, stephanotis and violets.

ANN BRAND MILLER of Youngstown, O., was maid of honor and bridesmaids included Sandra Sutherland of New London, O., and Marilyn Lydie of Akron, O. They wore gowns of gold velveteen and carried bronze Fuji mums and pompons with green ivy.

J. Richard Reynolds of Berea was best man, and seating the guests were Lee Varblow, Jr., brother of the bride, and Thomas Armstrong of Berea.

Following a reception and buffet dinner at the Village Women's Club, the couple left on their honeymoon, after which they will be at home in Columbus, O.
