Kick-Off Dinner Begins Cranbrook Fund Drive

By DOUGLAS LIEBERMAN
Special Writer

On Thursday, Nov. 16, the Kick-Off dinner for the fund raising drive which begins Jan. 1, 1964, and ends Dec. 31, 1966, was held in the Cranbrook Dining Hall. One hundred and seventeen members of the Board of Directors, trustees of both Cranbrook School and Cranbrook Foundation, members of the alumni committee and friends of the school attended the dinner, the purpose of which was to acquaint the public with the needs of the school and its $3 million opportunity through the Drive. On opportunity through the Drive.

Rev. Walter Young, the Chaplain of Cranbrook School, was the chairman of the conference, which was attended by 10 schools from the area. Dr. Eugene Biddle, Head of the Science Department of Kiskiminetus Springs School and a Doctor of Theology, spoke on Science and Religion. It has been announced that Cranbrook School has been elected to membership in the College Entrance Examination Board. Our official representative to this organization, Dean Hubert Davis, will have a voice in the functions of the Board. This membership is for a period of three years.

AT THE END of the following week, eight Cranbrook students left for Oberlin, O., to attend the

Barnum Play Solves Riddle

By JEAN GIBNEY
Special Writer

Where is the $10,000,000? As the audience glued their eyes to the Barnum stage, the surprising answer was revealed. An old lady carrying a teddy bear, a person who thought he could play the violin but couldn't and a very attractive nurse were part of the cast who solved the problem posed by rich Mrs. Sa'va'ge with $10,000,000 in this play.

Barnum's ninth grade play, "The Curious Savage," which ran Dec. 4 and 5, was directed by Jack Bishop, Margaret Boyd, Andy Burleigh, Chris Dickenson, Tinnie Lilley, Janice Ott, Carolyn Pratt, Pat Riley, Fritz Ruffer, Nancy Talburt and Steve Weller. Barnum students are eagerly fact that the annual Jasper Reid Writing Awards of Cranbrook School are running far ahead of last year. Better than 2,000 entries have been received, a good 600 more than last year. Winners in each of 15 categories in the Junior and Senior Divisions receive prizes of $5. Part of the money is contributed by Jasper Reid, Jr., in memory of his father, and the rest is given by the Cranbrook Alumni Association.

anticipating the best dance of the year. The Student Council has planned this dance for Friday, from 7:30-10:30 p.m. Music will be provided by the Overtones, a Sea-holm Band. Two of the band members, Butch Hamilton and Burk Lewis, are former Barnum students. The cafeteria will be decorated to carry out the theme implied in the name of the dance, "St. Nick's Fantasy."

THE DANCE committees are: tickets, Carol Collins, Lanie Menkel; publicity, Sally Hutchins; Nancy Steiner, Pam Martin, Fran Seltzer; prizes, John Dize, David Rosenberger; decorations, Janice Poplack, Claudia Horn, K a t h y Rosseto, Diane Garfield, Cathy Jensen, Cathy Peyton, Kathy Evisizer, Linda Awrey; refreshments, Jamie Pingel and Council, chaperones, Bill Canning, Jay McAluffie. The Barnum Creative Writing club held a meeting after school Dec. 4th. Members were shown various objects and then were asked to describe what they saw. The club's bulletin board committee also met. They have posted a bulletin board of student writing which may be seen in the main hall. The committee hopes to achieve more recognition of student writing. The Electronics club held a meeting Dec. 3rd. After discussing current business, the members sorted new equipment and made plans for establishment of a ham radio station.

TRYOUTS FOR the annual Water Ballet were held after school Tuesday. Girls from all three grades practiced hard for many weeks in preparation for the tryouts. Mrs. Black, girls' gym teacher, says the names of those chosen will be announced later.

At the present time, the girls 9th grade swimming classes are working on synchronized swimming. The 8th graders will include diving in their activities. Seventh graders will be working on perfection of strokes and return swimming.

AFTER MANY scrimmages in the gym, Coach Stoll has announced the following survivors who will make up the boys' basketball team: Ron Crook, Ray Collins,

Dave Cook, Bob Rowe, Ralph Galbraith, John Hocking, Jay McAluffie, John Dize, Mark Newhouse, Jamie Pingel, Alan Grether and Vell Clark. Coach Stoll says, "We have a small but fast team, playing a long season."

Harold Stanton, Agricultural Sales co-ordinator for the Ford Tractor Company, Implement Division, spoke to Mrs. Griffith's seventh grade social studies class on Tuesday. Stanton, an expert in his field, has an M. A. in Agriculture. He spoke on the "World Wide Effect of American Agriculture."
