

Husbands Invited To Potluck Supper

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Husbands have been invited by their wives—the 35 members of the Pine Lake Estates branch WYFCA — to a potluck buffet supper tonight at the home of the club's president, Mrs. Harold Payne, on Iverness Lane.

The four-day book sale conducted in November by the Friends of the Library for the benefit of the West Bloomfield Township Library has been termed a success.

Mrs. Russell Kulberg, treasurer of the group, reports that the 1,100 used books sold netted $181 which will be turned over to the library for the purchase of new books.

THE GORDON Fowles, Clifford Jacky and Gerald Matzes will meet tomorrow night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman McClure on Stanley Street for the December session of Braes Three's couples' bridge tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mulford were hosts to their group last Friday. Players included the James Martins, George Hywaters and Willard McPhees.

ROBERT CAREY of Raven Court is in Chicago attending the annual convention of the National Association of Home Builders. He will accept an award for Thompson-Brown Co., of which he is president, for capturing top honors in a nationwide real estate merchandising contest sponsored by Practical Builder Magazine.

MRS. ALBERT Waters of Boxford, Mass., is here on a visit with her daughter's family, the John Brinks of Woodwind Drive. Mrs. Waters arrived Nov. 24 and will stay through the Christmas holiday.

The Brinks also had as guests for Thanksgiving his brother and family, Rev. and Mrs. James Brinks and their two children of Elvira, O.

Thanksgiving guests of the Edward Girk of W. Newland Drive were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Teich of Baraboo, Wis., and Mrs. Girk's brother and niece from Baltimore, Md., James Whaley and daughter, Judy.

ROBIN EISEN of Eastmoor

Road, who will become the bride of Raymond Blackwell, Jr., Dec. 28, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given for her Saturday evening by Karen Hinch of Huntington Woods.

Among the 20 guests were Robin's mother, Mrs. Eisen; her aunt, Miss Marge Eisen of Detroit; and Mrs. James Bernardin of Eastmoor Road.

Mrs. James Ezell of Quanton Road and her neighbor, Mrs. Lloyd Lane of the Barretts, combined forces last Wednesday and gave a luncheon and bridge for 20 friends at Mrs. Ezell's home.

AN INVESTITURE ceremony for 14 Brownies was conducted by Brownie Scout Troop No. 922 at its meeting last Wednesday afternoon.

Six girls received their one-year membership stars. They were Susan Bannister, Christine Brooks, Lee Carey, Leslie Cargill, Colleen Noonan and Eileen Sims.

IT WAS a full house at the Joseph Flubacher's Ballantrae Road last week end as guests from Ohio, Wisconsin and Indiana arrived to attend the wedding in Dearborn on Saturday of Mrs. Flubacher's niece, Harriet Moore, to Bryan Senior.

From Indianapolis came Mrs. Flubacher's brother-in-law, sister, nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schmadeke, and Mr. and Mrs. William Schmadeke.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Withrow, the Flubachers' son-in-law and daughter, were here from Cincinnati. Also present were another niece and her husband, the John Langlans of Racine.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fraser and son Randy, a junior at Groves High, attended the Fall Sports Banquet held at Groves on Dec. 2.

NEW RESIDENTS on Sutters Lane are the Barretts and Baldridges. Dr. and Mrs. John Barrett and their seven children moved from Lathrup Village Oct. 2. Their five daughters and two sons range in age from seven to 16 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baldrige and seven-year old daughter, Jeanne, arrived from Arlington, Tex., last July.

Pierce Slates Holiday Program

The second Christmas music program at Pierce School will be held Monday, Dec. 16 at 8 p.m. in the school gym, performed by grades four through six. All parents, friends and neighbors of Pierce are invited to attend.

The music program will take the place of the Dec. meeting of the PTA. A regularly scheduled meeting will be held Jan. 15.
