

Combining Froth 'n' Know How

Wayne State: Members of Wayne State University Alumnae Club of Birmingham felt that last week wasn't a bit too early to start planning for that unusual centerpiece or holiday decoration for Christmas, so at their regular meeting at the Community House they had Mrs. Anna Belle Webb (left), local flower consultant for McClelland Ball, as guest speaker. Mrs. Dick Evans was intrigued with one of the finished products.

Girl Scouts: Birmingham-Bloomfield Girl Scouts, along with their sisters throughout the United States, are busily combining holiday festivities with the distribution of new Girl Scout Handbooks. (See story Page 2-CC). Susan and Sally Bannister (from left) toted a complete set out to Meadow Lake School last week, where they were accepted by Principal Albert Schumm and Librarian Mrs. James Waggoner.

Party Circuit: Julie Kassebaum of St. Louis, Mo., and Jeff Peters of Birmingham did some club-hopping Saturday night, going first to Oakland Hills for the President's Ball and then on to Plum Hollow where Julie's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Clive Helferich, Jr., of Farmington, were entertaining. Julie spent the week end in Birmingham, dividing her time between Jeff and his family, her uncle and aunt and her grandfather, J. Clive Helferich, Sr., of Detroit.

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
Thursday, December 12, 1963

Man or woman—if you are one whose emotions can be stirred to the extent of causing you to weep when reading about, or viewing a heart-rending situation, don't ever apologize. For indeed, becoming emotional is a sign of an inner spiritual health... and the shedding of tears is but one of Divinity's ways of helping you to keep your heart's compassion alive.
