 The club's task is to collect new toys suitable for children between the ages of six months and 12 years, which will then be distributed by the Salvation Army. Contributions are welcomed.
 Those wishing to donate may contact Mrs. Robert Rowan, president of the club and chairman of the project, Mrs. Frank Coyer, co-chairman, or the individual block hostesses. Assisting Mrs. Lakatos as cohostesses were Mrs. Edgar Eckel and Mrs. John Russell.

A SILVER wedding anniversary party was given for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leupen of Beechwood Ave. by their sons Tom, 23, Jerry, 21, and Doug, 17. The boys sent the invitations, arranged for the flowers and caterer, and presented their parents with silver flatware.
 Among the 45 guests were Beverly residents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bell Chambers, the John Mustos, Dr. and Mr. Richard Varley, Miss Kay Trumbull, and Miss Hilda Trumbull.

The Greenfield-Beverly Hills Improvement Association has four cash prizes to award members having the most outstanding outdoor Christmas decorations. Judges will tour the area on Dec. 20 and 21 and winners will be announced at the Christmas Carol Sing on Sunday, Dec. 22.

ON THURSDAY, Dec. 5, a card luncheon and Christmas sale at the North Congregational Church was sponsored by the Valley Woods Branch of the WNFCA.
 Featured were a bake sale headed by Mrs. Russell Seeburger and Mrs. Glen Westbury,azaar items and door prizes, as well as an opportunity to play bridge or pinocle. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Kenneth Holloway and Mrs. R. B. Webster.
 With all the excitement and activity during December, the group is holding its Christmas luncheon and exchange of gifts on Jan. 16 at the home of Mrs. Ted Pazzas, of Forest Lane Road. Mrs. W. L. Ullenbruch, state official of the garden club, will speak and show slides.
