First Baptist To Entertain Foreign Students

Several of Wayne State University's foreign students will join in a holiday celebration "American-style" with a series of parties, family dinner and tours, including an International Holiday Smorgasbord at the First Baptist Church of Birmingham Saturday night, Dec. 14.

Other events on their Christmas itinerary include visits to the Cranbrook Institute of Science, the City-County Building and Civic Center, the Enrico Fermi Atomic Power Plant, Ford Motor Company and the Greenfield Museum.

Greek children receive their presents, not on Christmas, but on the first day of the New Year, St. Basil's Day.

Name Jamboree Publicity Man

Arthur J. Brooks, president of the Clinton Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America and a Birmingham resident, has been appointed a member of the sectional staff for the Sixth National Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., July 17 to 23, 1964.

Brooks will serve as public relations officer, with responsibility for preparation and distribution of news and feature material about Jamboree activities for newspapers and radio and television stations serving the Region VII area.

Brooks, active in scouting for the past five years, is also scoutmaster of Troop 14, Meadow Lake. Vice president of Gray & Kilgore, Inc., Detroit marketing and advertising agency, he resides with his wife, daughter and son at 6100 Westmoor, Birmingham.

Border Program Showed Friendship Of U. S., Canada

Local American Legion representatives who participated in American - Canadian "freedom" border ceremonies recently included Jon Capton, Charles Edwards, James Casey, and James McGrill, from the Birmingham-Troy Post, No. 14.

The Ambassador Bridge served as the stage for the international harmony demonstration that contrasted the neighborliness of Canada and the United States to the "hate wall" that separates East and West Berlin.
