Flavorful young turkeys during Christmas vacation—the Matterhorn during Christmas vacation—the Matterhorn at Disneyland, that is, Bill, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis, 1315 Hazel, is attending Long Beach State University near Los Angeles and was in the States during the summer and other vacation periods.

Neighborhood Notes

From Peggy

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2532

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. W. Gee, 1540 Hayes, has invited everyone on their street to a neighborhood Christmas party at their home Wednesday evening, Dec. 18. Mr. and Mrs. James R. Egan and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Strachan are assisting the Gee's with plans for refreshments and entertainment. One of the twenty-four couples who receive block-print invitations are Dr. and Mrs. Howard F. Smith, Jr., newcomers to Hayes St. Returning to civilian life after being stationed at Bunker Hill Air Force Base near Kokomo, Ind., the Smiths recently moved in at 1523 Hayes. Dr. Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. Howard F. Smith, Beverly Hills, was graduated from the University of Michigan with a BS in mathematics and received his DDS at Marquette University.

BILL ELLIS will be climbing the Matterhorn during Christmas vacation—the Matterhorn at Disneyland, that is, Bill, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis, 1315 Hazel, is attending Long Beach State University near Los Angeles and was in the States during the summer and other vacation periods.

A graduate of Seaholm High School, class of 1900, Bill attended the University of Michigan for a year and expects to go to the University of California, Los Angeles, in the fall of 1964. He is a member Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity, and his goal is to be a sportscaster on radio and television.

Parents of Torry School children got the Christmas spirit when they heard their angels sing at the annual Christmas program Tuesday evening, Dec. 10, at 8 p.m. in the gym. The singers were members of the fifth and sixth grade Glee Clubs and all students in fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

Some of the songs on the program, under the direction of Mrs. Aurella Powledge, teacher of vocal music at Torry, were "I Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "We Bring You a Merry Christmas," "Oh, Come—All Ye Faithful," "Echo Carol" and "Sleigh Ride."

MR. AND MRS. Nino T. Ambrosiano and family, 1724 Bowers, traveled to Long Island, N. Y., to be with relatives on Thanksgiving and to take part in a birthday celebration Dec. 1st for Mrs. Ambrosiano's grandfather, Pat Porrazo. He is 95 years old.

All of his eight children, except one, were at the party; also, 18 grandchildren and 19 of his 32 great grandchildren. Seventeen-year-old Kathy Ambrosiano, the Birmingham Ambrosianos' daughter, is the eldest of the 32 great grandchildren.

To celebrate her ninth birthday, Ann Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Henderson, 1588 Bennaville, had a skating party Dec. 4 at the Ambassador skating rink, Clawson. Her guests were George Alderton, Gary Kale, Jeff Dumolin, Ellen Cassino, Patty Weber, Jill Van Dyke and Barbara Urwiler.

THOMAS GREEN, brother of Mrs. Louis D'Ambrosio, 1464 Bowers, returned to his home in New York Dec. 2 after visiting the D'Ambrosios for a week. Mr. Green, a bachelor, is better known to the neighborhood children on Bowers as "Uncle Tom."

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. Nash, 1461 Bowers, took their seven children to Cleveland, O., to visit Mrs. Nash's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Holiday Boutique at DCDS

Detroit Country Day School's holiday bazaar will be ready for action Monday, with a gay and exciting array of holiday gift suggestions and house decorations. For weeks, the Monday Workshop has been enthusiastically supported by mothers creating lovelies to put in stock. Among the group hard at work were Mrs. Diane Baker (from left), Mrs. Ned Henzinger and Mrs. Henry Sobell, Jr., chairman of the event.

Cadettes Invited To Scout Board

Cadette Girl Scouts are invited to the Senior Planning Board of Southern Oakland and Girl Scout Council tonight at 7 p.m. in the cafeteria of the service building of Michigan Bell Telephone Co., 23500 Northwestern Highway in Southfield.

Pat Graves, president of the board, said that the meeting will show cadettes how the board operates, and give them an opportunity to widen their horizons in scouting.

A movie from the 1962 Round-Up, featuring the 24 attendees from this area, will be shown.

Aero Club Leader Hosts Yuletide Tea

Mrs. A. M. McCarthy, of 23069 Sager Court, Bingham Farms, will host the Christmas meeting and buffet of the Women's Aeronautical Association of Detroit on Dec. 17.

Mrs. McCarthy is president of the organization, one of the oldest of its kind, having been founded in 1928.

Members from this area attending are Mrs. John Spencer, 1646 S. Eton, Birmingham; Mrs. Paul Berrier, 28239 Edward, Madison Heights; and Mrs. Fred Lindbloom, 4895 Ardmore Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

Stanley R. Zawacki, Thanksgiving weekend.

The Richard W. Deweys were at the home of Mr. Dewey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Dewey, Grand Rapids, for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Yuletide Tea

Mrs. Charles Adams, 3064 Morningview Terrace, Birmingham, participated in the Detroit Oberlin Club's annual Christmas tea recently at the Wayne State University Alumni House. A social hour with alumni and friends followed.
