Helping to Spread Christmas Cheer

The members of St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Regis parish met last Thursday for their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Joseph Moreau, 284 S. Williamsbury. But, their main concern was with giving, not receiving. The Guild's Yuletide project was filling in-its first class rating. This was re-evaluated yesterday in a report of a committee organized two weeks ago to stimulate stamp sales in an effort to prevent the office from dropping back into the second class. Up to yesterday, stamp sales for December amounted to slightly less than $9,000.

A 16-year-old girl student at Baldwin High School was placed on 90 days probation for driving an automobile with three persons in the front seat, three in the rumble seat, and three on each running board. The girl was warned that a second offense would result in revocation of her driver's license for at least six months. The girl was the first arrested by the police in a campaign to halt riding on running boards.

are expected to be incorporated in plans for the new hospital. Follow the pealing of the bells and the light of the tree to Civic Park next Friday at 5:30, and join neighbors and friends in Birmingham's traditional celebration of Christmas Eve. Each year, promptly at 6:30, the sounds of the church bells throughout the city halt all activity, save the gathering of hundreds beneath the lighted tree. Because of the early hour, whole families are able to join together, from every section of the city, to raise their voices in rejoicing.

Opening the 1948 basketball season at the Eastern Michigan league invitational meet in Mt. Clemens today and tomorrow, the Maple cagers face a long, tough schedule against practically all class A competition. Birmingham's first game is at 5 o'clock this afternoon with Hamtramck, reputed to be one of the best ball teams in the state.

Kerux League Plans Christmas Party for Needy

The Kerux Zone Walther League, the official youth arm of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, from the Royal Oak and Birmingham areas, hosted by Our Shepherd Lutheran Church of Birmingham, will hold a Christmas party for underprivileged children in Detroit. The party, being planned entirely by Lutheran teenagers, will be on Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m. for the benefit of Bethel Inner City Lutheran Church, the Rev. William Roten, pastor. All Zone Walther League personnel are invited. All those attending are requested to bring a three-fold gift, symbolizing the gifts of the Wise Men. The following gifts have been suggested:

Christmas homemade cookies, a religious "novelty," and a pair of woolen mittens, any size. Bus transportation will be provided by Our Shepherd Church. Bus schedules will be made available to the local zone societies. For further information on this youth project, Miss Emily Korloch, zone president, may be telephoned at LI 7-9613.
