

Back Home For Holidays

Mrs. Nicholas Babajoff of W. Lincoln Road, Birmingham, recently returned from San Diego, Calif., where she attended the graduation of her son, Richard, from the Marine Recruit Training Corps. She then went on to spend two weeks in Scottsdale, Ariz., as a house guest of Mrs. Walter Ellis, formerly of Bloomfield Hills.

One of the highlights of her stay was a week end at the Flying "E" Ranch in Wickenburg, Richard will be home for the holidays. On his return to Camp Pendleton, he will be shipped to Okinawa, where he will be stationed for 13 months.

White, Ruby Red Provide Setting

Candlelight white, with blending mink trim, and ruby red velvet accented by softest shades of camellia pink created a sense of Christmas pageantry Saturday evening for the ceremony at Kirk in the Hills which united Carol Sanders Lockwood and Paul Jerome Lay in marriage.

MRS. LAY

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Martin Lockwood of Haverhill Road, Bloomfield Hills, and Paul's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Lay of Detroit. The pair repeated their vows at 6:30 o'clock, after which a reception and dinner was given at the Detroit Athletic Club.

The bride wore an original gown of imported candlelight silk serge, Empire style. The bateau neckline and bracelet-length sleeves were trimmed in wide bands of white mink. The tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders, and her veil of imported silk illusion was secured to a tiny cap which repeated the tiered effect used for the train. She carried a cascade arrangement of white camellias, variegated ivy and holly.

Nancy Hay of Eau Claire, Wis., was maid of honor for her cousin, and bridesmaids included Margaret McCaul of Bloomfield Hills and Pamela Hay, another cousin, of Birmingham.

They wore full-length ruby velvet gowns fashioned along Empire lines, the backs distinguished by red satin bows with ribbons which fell to the floor. Their headpieces were matching, small tailored bows, and they carried cascades of pink camellias and holly.

Dr. Brooks Sitterley of Detroit was best man, and seating the guests were Charles Freehafer of Dayton, O.; Robert Chesbro of Sheboygan, Wis.; Charles Wright of Ann Arbor and Rodney Lockwood, Jr., brother of the bride.

Mrs. Lockwood chose a full-length beaded sheath of pink for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Lay wore a mauve sheath with a bodice of Venetian lace. Both mothers wore orchids.

When the newly-weds left on a trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the bride wore for traveling a raspberry silk sheath with matching mohair coat and black accessories. They will make their home in Royal Oak.

Dr. Brooks Sitterley of Detroit was best man, and seating the guests were Charles Freehafer of Dayton, O.; Robert Chesbro of Sheboygan, Wis.; Charles Wright of Ann Arbor and Rodney Lockwood, Jr., brother of the bride.

Continental Club Celebrates Year

The Continental Club of Bloomfield Hills held their annual pre-Christmas dance at the Elks Club of Pontiac last week.

The dance was under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. William Engelhart assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reimenschneider, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sering, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson.

New members welcomed to the dance club at this time were Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Dempsey, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sexton and Mr. and Mrs. Don Ward.

The Continental Club is under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Max King, Mr. and Mrs. James Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Cummings and Mr. and Mrs. Ron McGraw.

Sets Date

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Emshwiller of Hartford City, Ind., announce the engagement of their niece, Mary Elmer Dando of Birmingham, to Gene Raymond Bust, son of Mrs. Robert W. Bust of Maywood, Ill., and the late Mr. Bust. The bride-elect is a graduate of Michigan State University and her fiancé is a graduate of the University of Illinois. A Feb. 8 wedding is planned.

Holy Land Topic At Kappa Gamma Holiday Luncheon

Mrs. Robert D. MacGregor, 1235 Lyonnhurst Road, Birmingham, opened her home last Tuesday to members of the North Woodward alumnae of Kappa Gamma Gamma.

Mrs. Chester Bowie, Mrs. R. C. Teves, Mrs. Richd McGeehan and Mrs. Raymond Bender were hostesses. Following lunch, Mrs. Gordon C. Boling, president, conducted the association meeting.

Mrs. Frederick B. Elber introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. John P. Carrite, 57 Oakdale Blvd., Pleasant Ridge. Mrs. Carrite's interesting and instructive talk was entitled, "Gifts of the Bible." Mrs. Carrite has traveled through the Holy Land furthering her studies of the Bible, its history and content.

Have You Met ...

The residents of 285 W. Lincoln, Birmingham? Mr. and Mrs. Lawson A. Wiley moved from Detroit on Oct. 2. Wiley, who retired a year ago, was the director of budget and school lunchrooms for the Detroit Board of Education for 29 years. They are members of the Bushnell Congregational Church in Detroit.

Woman's Club Slates Gala Festivities

The old English country house quality of the Village Woman's Club lends itself well to the holiday spirit.

The moment members enter the great oaken door with its traditional evergreen wreath they are treated to the decor of Christmas. Framing the large window overlooking the garden is a lovely lilac branch festooned with green and blue lights and prismatic ornaments. Enormous square green candles glow pleasantly in the beamed lounge.

These and other arrangements were made by Mrs. Seth B. Shawson and her decorations committee members: Mrs. J. Paul McConkie, Mrs. Robert Thom, Mrs. Hobart D. Andreae and Mrs. P.

N. Askounes and the Junior members.

MRS. JEAN C. TURNAGE, the club's new manager, is assisting members with two special events to celebrate the season—a dinner and a children's party.

On Thursday, Dec. 19, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lechen, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dearth will welcome members and their guests arriving for the dinner. Cocktails will be served in the newly-decorated gold and green, chestnut-paneled cocktail lounge, recently completed by Mrs. T. F. W. Meyer and her committee.

A home-like atmosphere will prevail at dinner when Annabelle, the cook, presides over the lobster thermidor, while Hugh, the houseman, attired in a gay red jacket carves the royal crown roast. After dinner, guests will gather for caroling around the tree previously decorated by the Junior Board and their husbands. Tomorrow will be a day of fun for members' small ones. Mrs.

Busload of Thetas Head for Oakland

Members of Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae Club of Birmingham will board buses late this afternoon and, accompanied by their husbands, travel out to Girls' Ranch at Camp Oakland for a Christmas party. Dinner will be followed by a visit from Santa, with gifts for all.

On Dec. 5, Thetas met in the home of Mrs. Howard Scheppe for their annual gift exchange. Mrs. John Allman and Mrs. Richard Straight were co-hostesses.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

William Collins and Mrs. Hazen Carroll have arranged for Santa to arrive bearing gifts at 4 p.m., after which a children's movie will be shown.
