Dreams of Summertime Camping Mingle With Midwinter Fun

Mrs. Ned Heinzerling of 400 Westwood Drive, Birmingham, has recently been appointed the Detroit and suburban representative for St. John's camps: Camp Nagsawicka for Girls and St. John's Camp for Boys, both sponsored by St. John's Military Academy in Delafield, Wis.

So, although it's time for local cadets to come marching home for Christmas vacation, and their sisters to be involved in the same holiday activities, many of them are looking ahead to summer and a camping experience worth dreaming about.

SEAHOLM student Lynn Heinzerling, a gold medal award-winning last summer at Nagsawicka, is enthusiastically ready to give prospective campers a run down on what to expect.

For instance, the land and lake facilities of the Academy are available to all campers, includ-

Homes Needed for Exchange Students

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0656

The International Relations exchange students will be having a group of young people coming to this country soon from Brazil and Uruguay.

These students, most of them rated as scholarship material, age between the ages of 17 and 19. They will be in this country for approximately six months or until the beginning of a school term. The first group arrived on Dec. 17.

Another group will reach this country on Sunday, Dec. 29. If you would be interested in providing a home for an exchange student at this time you can obtain further information from Mrs. Bruce Dempsey, 2840 Highland Drive or Mrs. James Mitchell, 4301 Lahser.

THE FRANK Miningers of Crosswick Road had planned a lovely cocktail party for the holidays but because Mrs. Mininger caught a "bug" of some sort she was advised to cancel social parties for the time being.

Even so, their home will probably hum with activity because their son, Bob, will be home for Christmas from Highland Park, Ill., and their Tom will be home from his studies at Northwood Institute in Midland, Mich. Unable to make the trip at this time is another son, Frank, who resides in Denver, Colo.

TED KNOWLES of Oakland Hills Drive arrived home on Dec. 5 after traveling in Europe for three weeks with the Windsor Hockey Club, which was playing gymnasium, swimming pool, a fleet of sailboats and canoes and a riding academy.

The program also includes instruction in fine arts, including dramatics and art, with special emphasis on dancing. The camp operates a summer school, fully accredited by the North Central Association, for campers who need to review or make up school work. Typing and remedial reading are included.

Camp will operate from June 23 to Aug. 17.

In the meantime, cadets from this area expected to arrive home tomorrow include Theodore Armstrong, William Bemis, Hugh Gingell, Charles Loud, Walter Mackenzie, Jr., John Madell, Donald Massey, Rodney Taulick, James Schmier, William Schneider and Thomas J. Whiteman.

Others are James Barlow, Jr., Carl Heryman and William Sinclair, Jr.

MRS. HILLIER

Couple Goes To Nassau After Rites

At a ceremony solemnized Saturday in Redeemer Lutheran Church, Birmingham, Sandra Ann Ihas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Ihas of Middletown, N. J., spoke her marriage vows to Robert William Hillier, son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Hillier of Bloomfield Hills.

Bonnie McKim was maid of honor, other attendants including Barbara and Marilyn Hillier, Karen Burns and Laura Lentz, who was flower girl.

JOHN RITCHIEY was the best man, and ushers were Robert Kulow, Jr., Dennis McRea and Jerald Maynard. Kurt Rieske was ring bearer.

The bride, a graduate of Birmingham High School, has attended Michigan State University and is a graduate of Stafford Hall School of Business in Summit, N. J. The bridegroom, also a graduate of Birmingham High School, is completing his senior year at Michigan State University.

After a cruise to Nassau, the couple will make their home in East Lansing.

the following categories: traditional, original and juvenile.

Judging will be held on Dec. 26 by professionals. A resident need not be a member of either group to participate.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Desmond of Sherwood Drive spent a week at the home of their son and daughter-in-law in Washington, D. C., during Thanksgiving week and now Robert and his wife are planning on being here for Christmas week.

THE BLOOMFIELD-Berkshire Association met on Dec. 10 at the Bloomfield Village School. Approximately 75 residents of the area attended the meeting for the purpose of hearing Jim Scott from the water department of Bloomfield Township give an informative talk on the new pipe line that will bring Detroit water to the area.

At the present time the Berkshire area is serviced by private wells and septic tanks. A petition is now being circulated in the area to test the residents' reaction to the installation of pipes into their area. After the business meeting James Bostwick, president of the association, showed a film "A Trip Around the World," after which refreshments were served.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN Weber of S. Cranbrook Cross Road will have as their house guests for a week during the Christmas holidays Mrs. Weber's twin sister and her family, the H. E. Knowles of St. Louis.

The Knowles will be driving up with their three children, the youngest of whom is six, and who will be anxious to have Santa Claus know where to find her away from home. A large family party is being planned for Christmas Eve at the Weber home.

IN THE MEADOWLAKE area six women Mrs. Richard Hallock, Mrs. Frank Czarnieski, Mrs. Michael Lukon, Mrs. William Tomlinson, Mrs. Stanley Mager and Mrs. John Przewdzik, are hosting a Christmas tea for 90 women in the area.

One tea was held on Dec. 17 and the other is being held today between the hours of 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. Both teas were held in the home of Mrs. Przewdzik, 6563 Whysall Road.

Mrs. Maxine English of 7056 Meadowlake held a Christmas coffee in her home on Tuesday for 28 women friends and neighbors. Mrs. English is looking forward to the week end of Dec. 20 when her daughter Priscilla who is a senior at the University of Arizona will be flying home for the holidays.

THE JERRY MRLAKS of 6730 Halvard Road hosted a Christmas "Open House" on Dec. 16 from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Fifteen couples were on hand to enjoy a punch bowl and buffet.

Mr. and Mrs. John Przewdzik will spend this week end in Grand Rapids where they will attend a cocktail party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Weiss. The men are "college buddies" from Notre Dame.

The Franklin Woods women's bowling group held their Christmas party after bowling on Tuesday at Strick's "N Spare Lanes." There was a buffet luncheon and an exchange of gifts for members of the teams.

RESIDENTS IN the Cranbrook-Meple area are busy these days working on their individual ideas for the "Doorway to Christmas" displays. This is a civic improvement project of the Maplebrook Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association and this year is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Elmer Bush of S. Glenarry Road.

The Cranbrook-Meple Association of this area will be co-sponsors with the Garden Club and award prizes for the displays. There will be one prize for each of
