4 Helpers of Santa Are Coming Friday

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

"Better watch out, better not cry, better not pout, I'm telling you why", the four Santas are coming to town. (They're actually Santa's helpers, so don't panic, children.)

Mr. Dee Kenney, Mr. Richard England, Mr. Marvin Lausen, and Mr. Earl Zlatokul will don the traditional red suits and whiskers on Friday, and go calling on the children of the Beverly-Artesian Improvement Association members, leaving a trail of candy canes and delighted children behind them.

The Santas will also pick up letters written by the children, and the boy and girl who have written the best letters, in Santa's opinion, will find an extra gift under the tree on Christmas morning.

The annual house decorating contest in that area is in full swing and the judges who will decide on the seven prize winners are expected to have a hard time choosing. Association president, Mr. Art Koster, feels that this year's Christmas activities surpass previous efforts and suggest a drive in the Beverly-Artesian section to view the holiday illumination there.

A PRE-CHRISTMAS cocktail party for neighbors was given by Mr. and Mrs. James Myers of Devonshire Road on Sunday.

There to wish each other holiday cheer were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel White, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vogler, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Remley, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Sherrill, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lampe, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oostingh and Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter.

THE ANNUAL Christmas

Carol Sing, sponsored by the Greenfield-Beverly Hills Improvement Association, will again be held around a bonfire in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Duval, on the corner of Lauderdale and Glencoe. No excuses about not knowing all the verses of the carols, because song sheets will be furnished, along with hot chocolate and popcorn balls.

Association members and their children are asked to bundle up warmly before setting out for the Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. William Evans of Riverside Drive, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to Lincoln I. Russell. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, of Redding, Connecticut. The bride-elect is a 1943 graduate of Groves High School, and met her fiance while attending Parsons College in Iowa.

sing, which will be held at 7 p.m. on Sunday. Mrs. Howard F. Tuttle is chairman of the affair.

MRS. RAY SIFFERMAN entertained 16 women at a Christmas celebration on Dec. 12. All were members of the St. Thomas Guild of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church.

After a buffet, the group played games and exchanged gifts. Assisting Mrs. Sifferman as co-hostesses were Mrs. Joseph Ingle, Mrs. George Fedack and Mrs. Edward Bell.

A MISCELLANEOUS shower with a Christmas theme was given by Mrs. Vince Harcourt last week in her East Rutland Drive home. Guy Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Brown, and next door neighbors of the Harcourts, will be married in February.

Honored at the shower was Guy's fiance, Raliss Simonowicz of Utica. After playing games and visiting, the bride-to-be opened her gifts, then everyone sat down to enjoy the evening luncheon prepared by Mrs. Harcourt and Mrs. Joseph Crain.

Attending from Beverly Hills were Mrs. William Fray, Mrs. Jerry Wicks, Mrs. Woodrow Osterhout, Mrs. Joseph Henninger, Mrs. Frank Risak, Mrs. Dee Kennedy, Mrs. Grover Brown, Mrs. Joseph Crain, Mrs. Rudy Daseler, and Mrs. Glenn Redman.

A CHRISTMAS tea in honor of a new neighbor was given by Mrs. David Thompson for Mrs. William Eustahler on Tuesday.

There to meet Mrs. Eustahler, who teaches a home economics course at Wayne State University, were Mrs. Ralph Carey, Mrs. Lee Dagey, Mrs. Dave Putnam, Mrs. Robert Carp, Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. Louis Nielsen, Mrs. Glenn Sawyer, Mrs. Richard Perry, Mrs. Fred Arnold, Mrs. John Heebner, Mrs. John Stajger, Mrs. Ray Zawacki, Mrs. Clara Moffatt, Mrs. Frank Leiber, and Mrs. John Siddall.

THE MEMBERS of a sewing club which has met once a month for years, drove to Devon Gables last Friday for their annual Christmas luncheon and exchange of white elephant gifts.

Enjoying the afternoon party were Mrs. Robert Lapham, Mrs. David Thompson, Mrs. Ralph Carey, Mrs. Glenn Sawyer, Mrs. David Putnam, Mrs. Richard Perry, Mrs. Lager Parker, Mrs. Ed Betty Nisler, Mrs. Robert Cary, Mrs. John B. Clemens, Mrs. Ed Kraus, Mrs. Dave Johnson, Mrs. John Siddall, and Mrs. Lindley Stout.

FRIENDS OF Mr. and Mrs. Ted Shurtliff will be pleased to learn that three-year-old Mark, who broke his arm last week, is feeling fine. His mother, Peggy, however, is certain that things wouldn't have gone as smoothly without neighbors Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Tipton, since Ted wasn't home from work when Mark fell.

First of all, Betty Tipton splinted Mark's arm and drove them to Beaumont Hospital, while the Tipton boys, Chuck and David, shoveled the Shurtliffs' walks. As if this weren't enough, the Tiptons had Blair B. and Gary G. over for dinner two nights running, with Gary just recovering from the mumps.

Mark is reportedly enjoying the attention being showered upon him in the form of cards, gifts, and visits from his friends in the neighborhood.

PAT KEIL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Len Keil and a senior at Marian High School, is home and able to see visitors after spending most of last week at William Beaumont Hospital.

Pat, who fractured her ankle after slipping on a patch of ice, had the dubious honor of being the first casualty of the winter at the hospital, but is hoping to return to school after the holidays. Another Keil daughter, Diane, who is a junior at Purdue, will be home for her Christmas vacation.

Head South

Mr. and Mrs. George Atherholt will leave Saturday to spend the holidays with Dr. and Mrs. Richard Dellerson of Miami Beach, Fla. They expect to be back in their Bloomfield Hills home on Jan. 5.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank all our friends for their concern and kindness in this difficult period. Plans concerning our reopening will be forthcoming. Wishing you warmest greetings for Christmas and the New Year.
