Animal Care Needed For World Peace

To the Editor: As we celebrate this blessed season we are reminded that Christ was born in a stable surrounded by animals, "the least of these."

We are reminded too that He came into this world, suffered and died that His great doctrine of justice and mercy might reign. There is no cause that is more Godlike than that of animal welfare, for it is a cause from which no one ever hopes to gain anything for material nature. Its only reward is peace of mind and the knowledge that by our efforts we have helped to make the world a little kinder place than we found it.

ST. FRANCIS of Assisi, who is recognized by all faiths as the patron saint of animals, lived in the dark ages of barbarism when

STRICTLY FRESH

What makes some men tick is that some woman has given him the works.

Any time you get to thinking about how hard it is to meet new people, pick up the wrong golf ball.

It's always wise to watch out for school children, especially when they are driving.

Many persons get themselves into debt by trying to keep up with those who already are.

He helped to keep the light burning and today, hundreds of years later, the light of justice and mercy burns brightly in the humane society windows throughout the civilized world.

Kindness and mercy to all living creatures, not political theories, will bring world peace.

How can we pretend to fight for benevolence in government while we praise and reward cruelty to helpless animals.

LOCAL MERCHANTS ASK YOUR CO-OPERATION

If it is necessary for you to exchange a Christmas Gift in any store, please do so by January 3rd

In some cases because givers did not have correct information as to size or some other detail, exchange may be necessary.

Please note that no exchanges of Christmas Gifts can be made after January 3rd, 1964

Abuse of the exchange and return privilege can cause a great deal of unwarranted expense. Therefore, as a matter of assistance to the merchants of Birmingham who wish to continue to make this service available to you, we ask your cooperation.
