

Blanchard-Rosaen Vows Exchanged

Linda Ellen Rosaen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nils O. Rosaen of Quarter Road, Bloomfield Hills, spoke her marriage vows Friday, Dec. 20, to Ross L. Blanchard, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Blanchard of North Hollywood, Calif. The 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony took place in Immanuel Lutheran Church, Detroit. The bride wore a Bianchi gown of antique silk fashioned along Empire lines, the Alencon lace trim on bodice and skirt elaborately beaded with tiny crystals and seed pearls. The controlled skirt fell into chapel train, and her veil of imported silk illusion was secured to an open-crown pill box. She carried white roses and variegated holly.

EDITH LOUISE Rosaen was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids included Suzanne M. Robinson, Carol S. Newton, Pamela J. Read, Maureen M. Gallivan and Lynn R. Ivey. Karen Rosaen, another sister, was junior bridesmaid.

They all wore red velvet with floor-length overskirts of matching satin and carried white carnations. Short full veils were attached to the scarlet bows they wore in their hair.

James Sutherland Danhof was best man, and seating the guests were Henry G. Szymanski, Donald J. Meldrum, Alexander Morton III, Nils E. Rosaen, brother of the bride, and Howard W. Schueneman. Lara O. Rosaen, another brother of the bride, was junior usher.

Following a reception at Red Run Golf Club, the newlyweds left on a trip to New York and Bermuda. On their return, they will be at home in University Village, E. Lansing.

MRS. BLANCHARD

Miss Bradburn Weds John C. Schierholz

Alice Elizabeth Bradburn became the bride of John Charles Schierholz at an evening wedding at the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham Saturday.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bradburn, 1400 N. Gleggery, Birmingham. Schierholz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Schierholz of St. Louis, Mo.

The new Mrs. Schierholz wore a gown of white satin with a full train, and carried a white satin muff to which gardenias were pinned.

Miss Nancy Wecker of Barrington, Ill., was honor attendant, and Judi Hannebalk, Indianapolis, Ind.; Katie Crocchi, Saratoga, California; and Vicki Sealey of Lake Forest, Ill., were bridesmaids. They wore full-length gowns of forest green velvet, and carried white fur muffs.

MRS. DAVID LEE REGAN

Scene of MSU Chapel Regan Rites

The Alumni Memorial Chapel on the campus of Michigan State University was the scene of the marriage of Sharon Mallinson Stokes and David Lee Regan on Saturday at 4 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hendrie Stokes, 2471 Radnor Drive, Birmingham. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Joseph Regan, of Waukegan, Illinois.

The bride's sister, Diana Louise, was chosen maid of honor, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. David Terry Stokes of Birmingham, was bridesmaid. They wore floor-length gowns of electric blue velvet, accented with moss green ribbon circling the bodice and creating an Empire effect.

THE BRIDE appeared in a gown of peau de soie fashioned with a controlled skirt and detachable train. Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls and crystal beads graced the fitted bodice. A Swedish crown embroidered with Alencon lace held a bouffant veil of imported French illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Following a ski trip to Northern Michigan, the pair will live
