MISS CODY

Cody-Miller Engagement Is Announced

Of interest to Birminghamites is news of the engagement of Mary Lou Cody and Daniel August Miller. Mary Lou, who grew up in Birmingham and whose uncle and aunt, the Clyde P. Craines, still live here, is the daughter of Frederick Kip Cody of 12 Stratford Place, Grosse Pointe, and Mrs. Cody. She is also the daughter of the late Nancy Ryan Cody and granddaughter of the late Frank Cody, former superintendent of Detroit Public Schools.

Mary Lou is a graduate of the Covert of the Sacred Heart, Grosse Pointe, and Maryville College of the Sacred Heart, St. Louis, Mo. She is a member of Sigma Gamma.

THE BRIDEGROOM-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Miller, in and they ran something like this "As far as I know, yes." "Be glad to if I can. Thank you." "I think I can. Thanks." "What let you know. Thank you." -gracious, but not always definite.

MR. AND MRS. Harry F. Pritchard, 1398 Haynes Court had a party at their home Friday night, Dec. 23. Guests coming from Detroit for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Eppel, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Benjamin, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mill and Mr. and Mrs. John MacKenzie. Friends from Royal Oak were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pike; and from Berkley came Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Hinake. Also joining the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Delder, Franklin Village, and Mr. Pritchard's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pritchard, Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard are entertaining again Saturday night, Dec. 28. Some of the guests invited to that party are Frank Emerick, Mount Clemens; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quattlebaum, Farmington; Mr. and Mrs. Isa Montclair, Detroit.

MRS. ALLMAN is the widow of Eugene M. LaRose and has been a resident of Rockford for the past twenty-five years. She has been active in the affairs of the Rockford Business and Professional Women's Club and has been associated with the Commercial Mortgage and Finance Co.

Mr. Allman has been a resident of Bloomfield Village since 1929 and is president of the Allman Co., nationally known advertising and marketing research organization of Detroit.

Ladies on Penistone take time out for a coffee every Thursday morning. Mrs. John R. Strang, 1749 Penistone, was hostess to ten of her neighbors for the morning coffee Thursday, Dec. 19.

Gathered on Christmas Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis L. Haack, 1407 Bowers, were Mr. Haack's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Haack, and Mrs. Haack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Kirkegaard, and her brother, Edward M. Kirkegaard, all from Fort Huron. The Dennis Haack family plan to visit Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Kilmer of Lansing, over New Year's and welcome the New Year in with former neighbors and friends in that city, their home before they moved to Birmingham.

MR. ROBERT W. CAMP, 1700 Pla. William Darby of Camden, N. J., will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brackin, 1673 Bowers, for a week during the holiday season. Mr. Darby is Mrs. Brackin's brother and made his home with the Brackins until recently.

Edward W. Graham is out of the hospital and "getting along fine," according to Mrs. Graham, following a dice operation. He will be convalescing at home until about February. The Grahams had just moved into their new home, 1917 Warner Lane, Beverly Hills, from 1657 Bowers St., Birmingham, when Mr. Graham went to the hospital.

Birmingham Alums Of Mount Holyoke Will Meet for Tea

The Mount Holyoke Club of Detroit and Birmingham will give its annual Christmas tea in the home of Mrs. Robert B. Powers on Whittier Road, Grosse Pointe, Jan. 2 from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. This tea is to honor, especially, undergraduates and prospective students and their mothers.

A panel discussion by four girls who are currently on campus will enlighten the assembled group as to what life is like on Mount Holyoke's campus today.

Nancy Vickers of Trafford Road, Royal Oak, will give the freshmen's viewpoint. Diane Whitmore, of Plum Brook Drive, Southfield, will present the sophomore outlook. Sarah McCormick, of Highland Park, and Julie Kruger of Rochester, will speak for the juniors and seniors, respectively.

Other students who will be home for the holidays will serve as hostesses. They are Mary Milne of Rochester; Penelope Court of Indian Village and Jean Vermewlen of Grosse Pointe.

DURING THE TEA, it is planned to play a recent recording made by the VB's—a group of eight girls from the student body who sing popular songs.

New president of the alumnus club, Mrs. Leonard Horton, lives on Washington Blvd. in Birmingham, as do many other members of the club.

Some of them are Mrs. Carl Baird, Mrs. Ray E. Becker, Mrs. W. L. Bones, Mrs. Richard W. Brown, Mrs. Don A. Cargill, who acts as scholarship chairman, Mrs. W. H. Ducker, who is ticket chairman; Mrs. George Herbert, Mrs. Richard H. Gauder, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Thomas N. Hubbard, Jr., and Ann L'Honnedeu.

Others are Mrs. Richard Lealand, Mrs. George D. Miller, Jr., Mrs. F. W. Reynolds, Mrs. Stuart O. Schaefer, Mrs. Steel L. Sellers, Mrs. R. O. Varnum, Mrs. Stanley Westberg, Mrs. Arthur J. Wieland, Dr. Gertha Williams, Mrs. Gene White and Mrs. Chiew Wong Weng.

Annual Doll Party Takes Place Today

The Mary Lambie Room for Boys and Girls, Baldwin Public Library, will again entertain girls and their dolls at a holiday party this afternoon from 2 to 3 p.m. This festive occasion, being held now for the third time, has come to be one of the most eagerly anticipated events of the Christmas season at the library.

Girls of any age are invited to come and bring their favorite dolls—new or old. There will be an introduction of the dolls, a story, two short films which are appropriate to the holidays, and refreshments.

Mother-Daughter

Mothers and daughters of the Birmingham Country Club will be honored at a tea at the club Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by the Bow-Coffey Chorales.
