Peace Corps Volunteer Jamaica-Bound

Mary Laurie Gossett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gossett of 1120 N. Glenhurst, Birmingham, has begun a two-year assignment as a Peace Corps volunteer in Jamaica.

She is one of 24 Peace Corps volunteers who are now on home leave prior to departing on Jan. 7 for Jamaica. There they will work in community development programs.

Volunteers will encourage self-help efforts in the fields of credit cooperatives, adult literacy, gardening, home economics and sports. In addition, the Volunteers will serve as elementary school teachers in the mornings.

This group will join 38 other Volunteers who are already serving in Jamaica. Through action, the Peace Corps Volunteers set the examples that the nationals can then follow in order to help the people in this land learn to help themselves.

For three months these Volunteers have been receiving training at the Peace Corps camp in Puerto Rico and at Rutgers University in the history, customs and economy of Jamaica, as well as in American history and institutions.

RO Kimball Pins Falcon Grapplers

Birmingham Groves, in its first year of wrestling competition, is finding things a little rough on the mat.

The Falcons ran up against a tough, unbeaten Royal Oak Kimball squad Friday and won only one weight division, the 133-pound class.

Kimball achieved its third straight win by the lopsided score of 51-3. The Knights had eight pins.

ECCENTRIC PHOTO

BILL STEPHENSON (51) of Groves outjumps Seaholm's Bruce Nyberg (24) to snare a rebound in Friday night's city rivalry. Seaholm was held to only 47 points in the defensive contest, but it was enough to beat the Falcons, 47-36. Seaholm's John Toland (34) watches the action from the rear.

Maples Top Falcons In Defensive Battle

Seaholm and Groves met on the hardcourt Friday night and the defensive battle ended in Seaholm's favor, 47-36.

The Maples, heavily favored over a game Falcon quintet, opened up an early lead in the first quarter of 14-10.

They widened the gap to eight points by the end of the half, 24-16, and Seaholm coach Lew Parry substituted freely in the final two stanzas.

* * *

GROVES, seeking to play a ball-control type game, held Seaholm's score down effectively, but could not score enough points to pull an upset.

The defensive-minded Falcons saw their hopes diminish in the third quarter when Seaholm, though held to 12 points, allowed Gtoves only three markers.

Trailing 36-19 going into the final quarter, Groves made a late uprising that came within seven points of the Maples on several occasions.

The Falcons poured in 17 points compared to Seaholm's 11 but each time they appeared to get within striking distance, the Maples added one or two buckets to keep the margin safe.

The victory was the first non-league game for Seaholm this season. The Maples had previously fashioned a 2-1 mark in the Eastern Michigan League.

* * *

GROVES, a member of the Northwest Suburban League, had a 1-1 conference record and were 1-3 overall before the inter-city contest.

Jeff Meyer and Bruce Nyberg topped the winners with 12 points a piece. Eight players hit the scoring column for Seaholm.

Groves was paced by Bill Logan, who was the game's leading scorer with 15 points. Six Falcons contributed to the attack.
