Dimes March Totals Given By Mothers

An estimated $4,679.55 was raised Jan. 23 in the March of Dimes Mothers' March in Birmingham, $5,091.29 in Bloomfield Township and $1,080.68 in Troy.

Mrs. R. Don Eberhardt, Mrs. Donald E. Twining, Mrs. W. E. Givens and Mrs. Carl Littleton, chairmen of the area house-to-house drives, made the joint announcement.

The 1963 totals top last year's collection of $4,421.37 in Birmingham, $4,069.59 in Bloomfield Township and $1,077.67 in Troy.

A final Mothers' March figure will be released when the official count is complete, the chairmen explained.

They point out that persons not contacted may contribute by sending the March of Dimes envelope that was mailed to every home owner in Oakland County.

Funds raised in the Mothers' March and other community events will aid the March of Dimes drive to eradicate crippling birth defects and arthritis and to provide continued care for polio victims who were stricken before March of Dimes research developed the Salk and Sabin vaccines.

The money will also help to set up the Salk Institute for Biological Studies in San Diego, Calif. Here Dr. Jonas Salk, who developed the first successful polio vaccine, will head a team of world-famous scientists seeking basic information which could provide answers to ailments ranging from the common cold to cancer.

Banks Help State Lend Funds to Needy Students

Michigan's higher education Assistance Authority, created by the Legislature but not given any credit to one man alone.

But the man who might draw this credit, Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, says "teamwork at all levels" has been the key to success of Michigan's highway construction program.

"Without the understanding and support of local units of government, the Legislature, chambers of commerce, highway associations, news media and the people of Michigan, the success of our road building program would not be possible," he said.

Mackie notes that highway building is a "partnership" between the State Highway Department, city and village commissions, commission boards of supervisors and county road commissions.

"It is because all of these groups, by and large, have been willing to work for better highways for Michigan that we have been able to accomplish what we have in recent years," he said.

Emphasizing the need for continued cooperation, Mackie said "instead of 'getting Michigan out of the mud' as was the battle-cry in the 1920's the problem now is how to keep the state out of a monstrous traffic jam brought on by its wonderful growth."

The Birmingham Eccentric Classified pages offer you a fine opportunity to sell your unwanted household goods.

The authority was created by the Legislature in 1960 for the purpose of helping make it possible for every qualified girl and boy in Michigan to obtain assistance in financing his college education.

Because the Legislature failed to appropriate funds for its operation in both 1960 and the succeeding years, the authority last fall planned the arrangement with Michigan banks.

Contributions for loans held at the various Michigan colleges and universities are matched by the banks on a 10-to-1 basis by the participation.

To date, Bartlett said nearly 60 loans have been granted to students at eight of the Michigan colleges and universities, both public and private, and Michigan students going to four out-of-state institutions have been granted them.

STILL GLOWING over the high praise received for his department's part in the very successful "All Michigan Dinner" during the annual Michigan Press Association convention, State Agriculture Director George S. McIntyre is making plans for another unusual venture.

McIntyre gives much of the credit for the success of the All Michigan Dinner to his administrative assistant, Joe E. Wells, who worked for weeks ahead planning the meal of Michigan products and getting contributions from farm groups and food producers for the "gift bag" given to each guest.

THIS IS THE SECOND consecutive year for another promotion. McIntyre, who serves as executive committee chairman of the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture, will soon visit Europe and Asia laying plans for farmers' tours.

The association sponsors tours of countries abroad for farm groups to see how their counterparts in Europe and Asia operate. A Michigan group went last year, and initial indications are that farmers from 27 states will go on tours this year.

His job on the two-week tour abroad is to line up tour arrangements. McIntyre will be working with Les Davis, coordinator of the Goodwill People-to-People program.

The two will consult with ambassadors, agricultural attaches and agricultural officials in Brussels, Moscow, Warsaw, Budapest, Berlin, Paris and London in making the selection of agricultural points of interest to be visited this year.
