U. of D. High Will Be Scene Of Gala Party

Taking their cue from the current musical, committee members for the largest party of the year at U. of D. High are calling their fun-filled evening "A Gala Night at Camelot".

Mrs. Malcolm Knauk and Mrs. Franklin Weiss are co-chairmen of the event, other committee heads including Mrs. John Talbot, Mrs. John Cooney, Mrs. E. Richard Egger and Mrs. Edward Stenger.

Proceeds will decorate the sanctuary of the student chapel.

BOYS FROM the Birmingham area planning to attend the party are Michael Chaput, James Conlan, Michael Craine, Mark Czekowski, Robert Dietrich, Michael Egger, Thomas Fitzpatrick, William Gilardy, Timothy Gray and David Henry.

Others are Craig Hildebrand, Jay Judge, Dennis Kacey, William King, Robert Krumb, Paul Lyons, James Parrie, Martin Reddy, Thomas Sanderson, Philip Stenger, Thomas Williams and Robert Adams.

BAC Cancels Out Hearts, Flowers As Party Theme

Instead of the usual hearts and flowers frills seen this time of year, members of the Birmingham Athletic Club held a "Mediterranean Night" dance Saturday. Candlelight and wine set the scene, with some guests appearing in typical Italian costumes, while others arrived as tourists.

Seen on the dance floor were Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Fields, Dr. and Mrs. James A. Read, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Haynes, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Maher, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Dalrymple, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Thielan, Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher Root, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Frew, Mr. and Mrs. Blis Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wandell, Mr. and Mrs. William Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carron.

Jri Delt

Group II of the Birmingham alumnae chapter of Delta Delta Sorority will meet on Tuesday, Feb. 12, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Fred Barrett, 4333 Berkshire Road, Royal Oak. Interested alumnae may contact Mrs. W. J. Malloy.

It Doesn't Look Like a Tough Chore

Frank Murphy, recently elected president of the Birmingham Athletic Club, sat down with outgoing president Robert Burton one day last week to gather what tips he could on how to handle a smooth-running club. Beaming faces would lead one to suspect it isn't so tough! It's Mrs. Burton (left) and Mrs. Murphy with the gentlemen.

Crime, Education Topic for AAUW

The many facets of the re-education of prisoners will be considered when Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women hears Mrs. Myrtle Viozka, director of education, Women's Division of the Detroit House of Correction, at their monthly luncheon Feb. 13 in the Birmingham Community House.

Seen on the dance floor were Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Fields, Dr. and Mrs. James A. Read, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Haynes, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Maher, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Dalrymple, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Thielan, Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher Root, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Frew, Mr. and Mrs. Blis Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wandell, Mr. and Mrs. William Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carron.

Mrs. Viozka initiated the education program for women at Dehoce in 1955 with a "scrap of paper, a pencil and a prayer" and has proved the worth of her school, for no girl has returned after having obtained a high school education under her guidance and been released. The library at Dehoce was provided by Birmingham branch AAUW through their benefactor, Carl O. Barton.

Mrs. Viozka will discuss guidance programs in elementary schools, special education for the emotionally and socially maladjusted child and the new federal crime study centers that are doing research in the causes of crime and the type of person prone to commit crime.

Mrs. Viozka is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University. She also has done graduate work at Temple University in Philadelphia, at Eastern Michigan and at the University of Michigan. Last June she attended the fifth Regional Conference on Crime at the University of Southern Illinois in Carbondale, one of the crime study centers.

Lazenby-Loppnow Nuptial Date Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Norris E. Lazenby of Royal Oak announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen Kristine, to Edward C. Loppnow, Jr., son of Mrs. Edward C. Loppnow of Franklin and the late Mr. Loppnow.
