

Robert Haefners Move To Home in Pennsylvania

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

The Robert Haefners and family of Valley Forge, Foxcroft, will bid farewell to their neighbors in Birmingham on Wednesday when they move to their new home in Lancaster, Pa. Lois and Bob have been Birmingham residents for many years, having gone to the Birmingham schools as children.

They were honored at a neighborhood cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. Wright Hitt and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith at the latter's home on Valley Forge recently.

Mrs. Haefner is being entertained at small luncheons all this week.

MR. AND MRS. Haefner joined their duplicate bridge group for a farewell ski week end at the Boyne Mountain Lodge last week end. Also attending were the Harry Prieses, the Wright Hitts, the Verne Sorges, Mr. and Mrs. Barry McCabe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Milburn and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Doule.

FOXCROFT
Mr. and Mrs. Richard DeBord and family of Woodland Pass are another Foxcroft family who have been transferred away from the area. The DeBords left last week end for their new home in Iowa. Mrs. DeBord was the honored guest last Wednesday at a coffee given by her neighbor, Mrs. Raymond Darling, also of Woodland Pass.

CHALMERS LAKE
Recent house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brooke Stanford, Jr., on Wing Lake Road were Ann and Jay Lussier. Ann is nine and Jay is 10. They are children of the Jules Lussiers of Buenos Aires (Mrs. Lussier is Mr. Stanford's sister). The family has lived in Buenos Aires for the past eight years.

Ann and Jay are having their summer vacation and earned this trip by their good conduct and good grades. The two children first flew from Buenos Aires to Florida for a two-week visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Brooke Stanford, Sr., of Winterhaven.

FROM FLORIDA they again boarded a plane for Detroit and spent one week with the Junior Stanfords and family. They have been spending the second week of their Detroit stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stanfort of Woodland Pass, Foxcroft.

From Detroit, Ann and Jay will fly (seasoned travelers by this time) for a visit with their grandfather Luster in New England for another two weeks. They will return home from New York with many experiences to relate to the rest of their family about their six-week stay in the United States.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH
Dan Murphy was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Conant School PTO held Monday. His topic was the new proposed State Constitution, its changes, disadvantages, advantages and its effect on each individual.

Murphy is a graduate of Wayne State University and was a delegate to Con-Con and an advisor to Governor Romney during the Constitutional Convention.

FOXCROFT
The Foxcroft branch, WNPGA, met at the home of Mrs. Robert Morrison on E. Surrey Monday afternoon for a workshop. Guest speaker was Mrs. John Calhoun, chairman of ways and means and horticulture for the Michigan WNPGA. Mrs. Calhoun instructed the members on the art of making dish gardens.

To Be Spring Bride

At a family party given Sunday in their home on Cedar Bend Drive, Bloomfield Hills, Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor McNaughton announced the engagement of their daughter, Janet Ellen, to Richard Charles Ten Eyck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ten Eyck of Chesterfield Road, Birmingham. Jan is a graduate of Kingswood School Cranbrook and attended Northwestern University where she was affiliated with Gamma Beta Sorority. She is a member of Sigma Gamma. Dick is a graduate of Cranbrook School and Cornell University where his fraternity was Sigma Phi. The couple is planning an April 6 wedding in Kirk-in-the-Hills Church.

Guests Will Arrive From All Points

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Stevens of 428 N. Elton Road will entertain Saturday at a family dinner honoring her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lyman Weeks Crossman of Wayne, formerly of Birmingham, on their golden wedding anniversary.

The party will take place in the home of the Crossmans' granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Durwood C. Allen of Pierce St.

Lyman Crossman, Jr. of Bronxville, N. Y., will be here for the celebration, accompanied by his daughter, Gray, who will come from school in Florida.

OTHER RELATIVES from out-of-town will include a daughter, Mrs. Ward S. Cook, who will arrive from Indianapolis with Mr. Cook and their four children, Stuart, Ward, Jr., Robin and Scott; two nieces, Mrs. Holt Hamlett of Orville, Ala., and Mrs. Julius Rippel of Madison, N. J., who will be accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Bruce Bessley, of Morristown, N. J.

Great-granddaughter Dana Lynn Allen, age two-and-a-half will be present, and so will her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Durward E. Allen of Royal Oak.

Fvt. Edson Stevens, who is in the Marine Corps and currently aboard ship in the Mediterranean will be the only member of the family missing.

Son Is Born

Mr. and Mrs. Lance Cabell Minor, Jr. (Barbara Vance Rownd of Wheeling, W. Va.) of Dallas, Tex., announce the birth of a son, Lance Cabell III, on Jan. 24. The baby's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Minor of Birmingham.
