

Panel Discussion Slated by WNFGA

One of the most interesting meetings of the club year will be held by the Birmingham Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association on Monday, Feb. 11, at 8:30 p.m. at the Birmingham Community House.

Mrs. Frank Webb will lead a panel discussion on "Investment Dividends."

Slides, charts and crafts will accent the discussion, showing the results of sending local teachers to Higgins Lake Conservation School.

Teachers on the panel are Mrs. Paul Hoofnagle, who teaches third grade at Westchester School; Mrs. Leonard Westrate, fourth grade teacher at Greenfield School; and Mrs. Maurice Haven, who teaches third grade at the Adams School. Mrs. Webb, the moderator, is a kindergarten teacher.

A new members tea will be held on February 26th at the home of Mrs. R. Taggart, N. Williamsburg Road, Bloomfield Village, between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. to welcome 15 new members of Birmingham Branch.

Mrs. William McCallum will address the new members and give them a brief history of the club, as well as acquaint them with the aims and purposes of the club.

NORTH ADAMS Polynesian Theme For Annual Event Planned by Club

By ELIZABETH YATES MI 6-1682

Osage Garden Club members will be entertaining their husbands and friends at the club's annual "men's night" with a Polynesian theme on Monday evening. The scene will be St. Stephens Episcopal Church where members will be toting their own specialties for the smorgasbord affair. Highlighting the grand array of foods will be a round roast of beef served by a chef.

Nat Reis of Windrush road will add to the Polynesian theme by entertaining the group with his movies of "Hawaii."

Planning the popular event are chairman Mrs. Beverly Smith and her committee Mrs. Ray Embury, Mrs. Wendell Crisp, Mrs. Pantillon and Mrs. Michael Bell.

Road are the John Grossos of Cincinnati, O. They have a 12-year-old daughter, Patricia, attending Holy Name, Grosso is a sales representative with Brauser Brothers Shoe Co.

The Donald Halls are new residents of Clawson. They have two children, Donald, 15, attends Trinity High School and Judy, 20, is employed at Fisher Body. Hall is affiliated with Peerless Garage.

OTHER NEWCOMERS on Cheswick Road are the Guy Fornes and 14-month son, Kevin. They came from Jacksonville, Fla. Fornes is associated with the Chesley Industries, Inc. The Donald Wards of Anderson, Ind. moved into their new home on Henly Court recently.

Their sons, Craig, 10 and Chad, 8, attend Hickory Grove School. Ward is plant manager with Mack Valve. The family's interests include skiing and bowling.

NEWCOMERS TO S. Reading are the John Spragues of Media, Penna. Their three daughters are Mary, 6, a student at Eastover school; Ann, 4, and Martha, 16 months. Sprague is with IBM.
