

Faculty Wives To Be Honored At Wayne State

Members of the 25-year group of the Wayne State University faculty wives will be honored at the group's next luncheon on Thursday, Feb. 21, at 1 p.m. in the alumni lounge of Alumni House, 441 W. Penz.

The luncheon meeting will be followed by an afternoon of cards and/or conversations.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. W. Ray Smittle, 20565 Vernon, Birmingham; Mrs. Ralph Busick, 12918 Asbury Park; Mrs. Carl Golditz, 20145 Gardendale; Mrs. Milton Convensky, 19231 Warrington; Mrs. Bert Hudgins, 16059 Oakfield; Mrs. Earl C. Kelley, 172 George St., Birmingham; Mrs. Dudley Newton, 4095 Buena Vista; Mrs. G. Flint Purdy, 14860 Penrod; Mrs. Carl O. Smith, 19974 Picadilly; and Mrs. Carl L. Whitechurch, 24 Devonshire Road, Pleasant Ridge.

B'ham's Loss Will Be Ohio's Gain

Shaker Heights, O., will soon be discovering talents which couldn't go long untapped in the person of Mrs. Roy Huffaker of Fairfax Road, Birmingham, who has recently moved to that area with her family. Phil (Mrs. H.) has been exceptionally active in PTA over the past few years, having served as both president and secretary at Barium and corresponding secretary for the PTA Council.

Mrs. Walter Heaverlich of Ridgedale has now taken the secretarial post on the Council. She, too, has a similar PTA history at Adams School.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

MISS FELLOW

MISS HAYDEN

Rings on Their Fingers

Pamela Kay Fellow (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Fellow of Ballantree Road, Bloomfield Township, is engaged to Donald Perry Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Banks of Pontiac. Currently the bridegroom-elect is attending Ferris Institute.

Date of the wedding will be announced later. Mary Lee Hayden, daughter of Mrs. George Kremer of Huntington Woods and W. Walter Hayden of Mt. Clemens, both formerly of Birmingham, has set June 15 as the date of her marriage to David J. Craig, son of Joseph Craig of Cleveland. Both young people are graduates of Bowling Green University, where she was a Delta Gamma and his fraternity was Theta Chi. David has just completed a six-month tour with the U.S. Army, and Mary Lee is a physical education instructor at Greenbriar School, Parma, O.

Republican Women See Documentary At Next Meeting

The Birmingham-Troy Republican Women's Club will have its monthly meeting Tuesday, Feb. 19, at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Thomas Murray of 856 Lake Park, Birmingham. A documentary film on the Constitutional Convention will be shown. All Birmingham and Troy members are invited.

Those wishing to become members may call the membership chairman, Mrs. Boyd Stockmeyer. Others at the helm for 1963 include Mrs. Thomas F. Sullivan, president; Mrs. Victor Catabaugh, vice president; Mrs. John Pfister,

Becomes Bride

At a ceremony solemnized Friday, Feb. 1, in the parsonage of the Lutheran Church of the Incarnate Word, Carol Ann Lindmark, daughter of the Oliver Lindmarks of Bloomfield Township, became the bride of James H. Dwire. The bridegroom is the son of the William Dvires of Birmingham.

Humor, Gifts Highlight Surprise Fete

By ELIZABETH YATES MI 6-1682

Luel Simmons, Jr. of Squirrel Road was the surprised guest at a dinner party given in his honor by the William Deweys of Anselw lane on Friday evening.

Unsuspecting, he and Mrs. Simmons arrived along with the Rev. and Mrs. Carl Sayers. The other guests, past and present vestry members of St. Stephens Episcopal Church, gathered at the Roger Blackwood and William Heaton homes and then proceeded to the Dewey home in force for the grand surprise. Each of the 20 guests presented Simmons, a vestyman and senior warden since the church's beginning, with comic gifts. Highlighting the party was a comic trophy and poem mounted on a gaily painted plaque that was presented to Simmons by the Heaton.

MRS. JOSEPH WRIGHT of Whittier Drive, a member of the Elizabeth Martha Guild of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, invited a group of friends to attend the church's annual salad luncheon and fashion show on Thursday at the church. Enjoying the event were Mrs. Gerald Shannon, Mrs. William Joyce, Mrs. James Glasgow, Mrs. Theodore Buhl, Mrs. Alva Yates, Mrs. Harry Mitchell and Mrs. Robert Burch, all of Bloomfield Hills Estates.

THE MERRY MAKERS Dance Club is making plans for its spring dance party at Oakland Hills Country Club on the evening of March 1. More than 100 couples will be kicking up their heels in the talent show, the evening's highlight.

Planning the spring event are Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hayes, Robert Kendal, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Fieselman, Mrs. Hugh Mack, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Burdette and Robert Frick, all of Bloomfield and Birmingham.

MR. AND MRS. F. J. MCGINNIS of Great Lake drive gathered their family and friends around them to celebrate the 10th wedding anniversary and birthday of the Vincent Hayes of Charing Way Drive on Saturday evening.

The group of 20 surrounded the piano for hours of singing and fun. Among the family participating were the Fred Eckhouts of Laneragan Drive and the Al Sprungs of Plymouth.

AIRMAN BILL EMBURY, son of the Ray Emburys of Rouge Circle, left San Diego Feb. 1 on the U.S.S. Constellation for a six-month cruise.

The first stop will be Hawaii, then on to Okinawa, the Philippines, Australia, Japan and Guam back to Hawaii. Bill expects to be back home in August when he will have completed his two years with the U.S. Naval Air Force.

The Darrel Montgomerys of Squirrel Road announce the birth of a son, Michael Dallas, on Jan. 29. The Montgomerys have four other children: Barbara, 9, Susan, 7, Bobby, 5, David, 2.

THE CHARLES HOWSONS of Laneragan Drive and the Warren Fronsaths of Detroit traveled to Washington, D.C. on Tuesday for the three-day annual meeting of the Business Publication Magazine. During their short stay they found time to tour parts of the city.

With all their ski gear, Doug Hagerman and Jimmy Morgan, sons of the Marc Hagermans and the Clyde Morgans of Pine Hill subdivision, boarded an Otsego ski bus on Friday for a weekend of skiing. Doug's grandparents, residents of Grayling, kept a watchful eye on the 18-year olds and then put them back on the ski bus for home on Sunday evening.

On the weekend of Feb. 23 Doug and a group from the YMCA will ski at Alpine, will be bedded down at Camp Ohyesha for the night and then ski at the Summit on Sunday.

THE VINCENT HAYES of Charing Way Drive and the Jack McBrides of Still Meadow are looking forward to a week of skiing at the Otsego Ski Club soon. They are planning on digesting the sport with a morning and afternoon lesson every day during their stay.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Charles Depuydt of Chestnut Hill Drive will be entertaining at a dessert-bridge tournament in her home. The bridge is sponsored by St. Hugo Church and meets monthly through June. Seated around the two bridge tables will be Mrs. Keith Ashley, Mrs. James Pearce, Mrs. Arthur Chauvin, Mrs. Henry Kezlarian, Mrs. Wendell W. Jarvis, Mrs. Joseph Duddy and Mrs. Bruce Dempsey, all of Birmingham and Bloomfield.

A GROUP of Leonard Lane residents have been meeting semi-monthly for afternoon bridge.

Mrs. Robert Wason of Laneragan drive hosted the group at a dessert-bridge on Monday. Playing were Mrs. King Laney, Mrs. Thomas Landig, Mrs. Robert Woodley, Mrs. R. Johnson, Mrs. Ted Sproull, Mrs. George Hargrave and Mrs. Michael Brown.

The Bert Bouwkamps are settled in their new home on Masefield Drive. Their move was from Beverly Hills. Bouwkamp is an automotive engineer with Chrysler Corp. They have four sons: Bruce, 13, attending East Hills Junior High; Steven, 11, and Bob, 7, Eastover students; and John, 2. Sailing is a sport the whole family enjoy.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Bruce Squiers of Masefield Drive introduced Mrs. Bouwkamp to area residents at a coffee in her home.

THE HARRY MITCHELLS of Huntington Woods are newcomers to Whittier Drive. They have two children, Mark, 12, and Connie, 9, attending Eastover School. Mitchell is a research engineer at General Motors. Their interests include golf, bowling and gardening.
