

Their Engagements Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Chapman of Riverside Drive, Beverly Hills, announce the engagement of his daughter, Linda Ann, to marry McKay Sundwall, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry W. Sundwall of Tempe, Ariz., formerly of East Lansing. Miss Chapman was graduated from Michigan State University, where she was affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta Sorority. The bridegroom-elect did his undergraduate work at Michigan State as a University Scholar and a member of Phi Kappa Phi, honorary fraternity. He is currently doing graduate study at Harvard University. A June wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Conley of Butterfield Hill Drive, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carlie Lynn, to Martin E. McClure, also of Birmingham. Both young people are graduates of Birmingham High School. Wedding plans will be announced later.

Daughter Born
Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lovell, Jr. (Lane Thomas of Birmingham) of Ann Arbor, announce the birth of a daughter, Cynthia Ann, on Feb. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thomas of Birmingham are the baby's maternal grandparents and her paternal grandparents are the W. G. Lovells of Mt. Dora, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Logan of Saginaw announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann Katherine, of Birmingham to Thomas Ryan Osberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Osberger of Pilgrim Road, Birmingham. A May wedding is planned.

Mary Jo Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Willis of Waterford, is engaged to Fred L. Metz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Metz of Pontiac. The bride-elect, who is an employee of The Birmingham Eccentric, is planning an August wedding. Her fiance will receive his B.S. degree in accounting from the University of Detroit in June.

Treat Celebration With Novel 'Twist'

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN MI 7-2324

Should Chubby Checker (who made a certain dance famous) be in town Saturday night, he might head for 4896 Loch Lomond Braes, where a "twist party" will be in session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bachman. Guests are coming from St. Clair Shores, Grosse Pointe Park and Detroit. Local talent will include Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Willard McPhee and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Metz, all of Loch Lomond. The Kenneth Crumba and Harry Lovells will represent Ballantre.

The get-together is planned as a combination Valentine and related birthday party to celebrate the mutual birthday Jan. 21 of Mrs. Martin and Bachman.

MRS. WILLIAM Ragsdale of Loch Lomond Braes, accompanied by Mrs. Wayne J. Patterson of Inkster Road, attended a meeting Tuesday evening of the North Woodward group of the alumnae association of Zeta Tau Alpha. At the meeting which was held in the Crippled Children's Hospital in Detroit, a demonstration was given of the self-help kits for crippled children. Mrs. Ragsdale is chairman of the group.

KIRKWOOD
On Jan. 26, after the last of her guests had departed from the surprise birthday party she had given for her husband, Mrs. Frank Gagner of Kingsmill Drive discovered one large casserole dish left over, untouched. She popped it in the freezer, thawed it out last week and gave what her friends kiddingly labeled "the left over bride."

Enjoying an afternoon of cards —and the casserole— on Feb. 6th, were Mesdames John Ware, Tom Bewick, Martin Healey, John Katke, Stan Ainsley, Bob Clifford, Robert Mahler, Paul Walters, George Reaser, Sylvester Zumbun and Rick Swanson.

THE MARTIN Healers of Sutters Lane who arrived in Michigan just four months ago from Omaha, Neb., had a dinner guests on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell of Puritan and Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGee of Southfield Road.

The Mitchells are also newcomers to the area having come from Des Moines, Ia., last July. Although the McGees have been Birmingham residents for the past 12 years, their former home was in Council Bluffs, Ia.

The couples met through their three daughters, all 7th graders in Sr. Clare Marie's class at Holy Name School.

ALSO ON SATURDAY, the Stan Ainsleys of Kingsmill Drive entertained a group of Kirkwood friends with an evening of duplicate bridge. Players included Mr. and Mrs. John Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gagner, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McGrath and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bewick.

Janice Phelps, 14-year-old daughter of the John Phelps of Walnut Lake Road, will give a Valentine party on Saturday. Games, dancing and a buffet supper are planned. Most of the guests are members of Trinity Methodist Church in Highland Park.

GAYLE BUTLER, 10-year-old daughter of the Dwight Butlers of Walnut Lake Road, recently entertained her friends from the West Bloomfield Baptist Church at a skating and sledding party at her parents' lake front home. The evening ended around the fireplace with hot chocolate and doughnuts.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.
