

2 Youths to Be Honored At Ceremony in Church

NITA HARD
MA 6-3221

To present the charter to Dr. John Burger, president of the sponsoring Franklin Community Association.

THE FRANKLIN Library Association has elected Mrs. Richard Cuddihy as president for the coming year.

Mrs. Max Miller was named as a new director.

Other officers elected are Mrs. Colman O'Shaughnessy, vice-president; Mrs. Harold DeOrlow, secretary; and Mrs. Grant Sivier, treasurer.

KIDDY REGLERS are due to show up in legions this Saturday at Star Lanes. Starting at noon the annual bowling clinic, sponsored by the youth activities committee of the Franklin Community Association, will offer youngsters who have registered with Forest Palmer two games and refreshments.

FRANKLIN PLAYERS are at it again. Director John Baker, with assistance from Mrs. Philip Van Dyke, is rehearsing the cast of "Man In A Dog Suit" for March performances at the Farmington Barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Haynes have left paint brushes at home and sliders and combs went to have a two-week holiday in the sun. Returning today, they have been visiting in Florida with friends.

WEEK-END SKIERS at Osego last week wished they had the wonderful timing of the Richard Barnards. Just as the Robert Hampsons and the William Kahns were leaving the slopes, a fresh blanket of snow and the Barnards arrived.

Florida Trip Follows Rites In Shrine

MRS. C. E. WALTON

Joan Patricia McMillan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bernard McMillan of Buckingham Road, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows Feb. 2 to Charles E. Walton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leo Walton of Southfield. The ceremony took place in St. Anthony's Shrine at Duns Scotus College.

The bride wore a peau de soie gown trimmed with Alencon lace, a matching headpiece which secured her well of silk illusion and carried white camellias and roses.

THE ATTENDANTS, all wearing red velvet and carrying bouquets of white gladiolus with camellia leaves, included Ann Doherty, maid of honor; Agnes Anderson, Frances Culver, Dorothy McMillan and Julie Ann Walton.

John Walton was his brother's best man, and seating the guests were James Caverly, James Gadenburr, Perry Huelmantel and James McMillan.

Following a reception at the Whittier Hotel in Detroit, the couple left by plane for a honeymoon in Florida.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, meetings and engagements announcements is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

SS Hope Movies Featured at Dinner

Dale E. Brubaker was guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Birmingham Women's Club at the Community House on Feb. 5. He showed the film "Project Hope," which was taken under his direction by Ex-Cell-O Corp. and MacManus, John and Adams, Inc. Mr. Brubaker was aboard the S.S. Hope on its initial voyage to Indonesia and Viet Nam.

Also on the program was Mrs. George Hilfinger, president of the Birmingham League of Women Voters. She spoke briefly about Michigan's proposed new constitution. Following her explanatory speech there was a question and answer session, which enabled those present to clarify the various where he directs a program of Christian Youth Education. Before the program, luncheon will be served by Mesdames John E. Martz, Dreyton McClelland and F. G. Crawford.

Arranging tables and serving dessert to the Modern Living membership will be Mrs. Russell Stem and Mrs. Russell Waters. Their meeting will be at the Community House, where they will conduct a business meeting and play bridge.

THE AMERICAN HOME Department will meet at the home of Mrs. Harry Allen. Luncheon will be served with the assistance of Mrs. Glenn Coley, Mrs. Frank Hogben and Mrs. W. L. Moreland.

Following a brief business meeting, Tea A. Panaretos will speak to the group on "Community Relations." Mr. Panaretos received his master's degree from the University of Michigan and has been in social work since 1949 when he was employed by the Macomb Bureau of Social Aid. In 1962 he came to the Pontiac State Hospital as a psychiatric caseworker. He is still there, but since 1959 he has been director of community relations.

His leadership in this field is primarily responsible for the coordination of volunteer programs, radio, TV, and other sources of communication which bring the community into closer relationship with the work of the hospital. Since serving the community is the main objective of the Birmingham Women's Club, it is hoped that at some future date Mr. Panaretos will speak to the entire group at a general meeting.

Juniors Seek Change of Pace At Dinner Party

The Birmingham Junior Woman Club's annual couples party was held Feb. 9 at the Hawaiian Gardens Restaurant in Holly, Mich.
